

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Tavaglione, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 27, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Elvira "Vera" Valles Price, the mother of Moreno Valley Council Member George Price.

Born on May 22, 1925 in Hidalgo del Parral, Chihuahua, Mexico, Vera migrated with her family to the United States at a young age living briefly in El Paso, Texas before moving to Los Angeles, California. In 1947, she married Wilmot "Bill" Price and they eventually settled in Santa Fe Springs where they raised their three children and taught them to work hard.

For many years, Vera worked for the Little Lake School District starting as a part-time cafeteria worker and rising to a Cafeteria Manager. She loved working at the school and was very active in the community.

Vera was a loving wife to her husband who preceded her in death and a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. Her memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Elvira "Vera" Valles Price.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on January 27, 2015 of Supervisors Minutes.

COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Tavaglione, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 27, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Dan Wall, a 68-year-old longtime local government lobbyist who after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer passed away on January 22, 2015.

A native of Texas, Dan grew up in San Francisco and earned degrees from St. Mary's College and San Francisco State University. His prominent career in Sacramento began in the State Department of Social Services. He later moved to the Employment Development Department and then became a senior consultant for the Senate Finance Committee, the precursor to the Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee.

Dan worked with the California State Association of Counties dealing with taxation and revenue issues for 13 years, prior to becoming the chief lobbyist for Los Angeles County. After taking two years off from lobbying to spend as a top aide to then-Assembly Speaker Herb Wesson, he rejoined the Los Angeles County Office as chief lobbyist in 2003. He retired in 2010 but remained on-call as a part-time consultant to the County until 2012.

Dan was a loving and devoted husband, father, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Dan Wall.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on

On motion of Supervisor Tavaglione, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 27, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Judith Grace Riemer, a 59-year-old resident of Riverside who after a courageous battle with cancer passed away on January 17, 2015.

Born on November 5, 1955 in Pasadena, California, Judith graduated from UCLA School of Nursing in 1977 and started her nursing career in the pediatric ward of the medical center at UCLA. She later served as a school nurse in the Los Angeles Unified School District.

When she moved to Riverside with her husband Craig in 1980, Judith found her "professional niche" as a public health nurse with the Riverside County Health Department, where she worked until 2006. After earning her MS in nursing from Loma Linda University, she also worked as a part-time clinical instructor at LLU's School of Nursing for several terms. From 2006 until her ill health forced her retirement in 2013, she served as a consultant and trainer for a software company that produces a web-based documentation system for community health nurses across the country.

Judith was a loving and devoted wife, mother, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Judith Grace Riemer.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on

On motion of Supervisor Tavaglione, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 27, 2015, be adjourned in memory of my uncle Frank, Francis Mario Tavaglione, a 99-year-old longtime resident of Riverside who passed away on January 16, 2015.

Born on June 26, 1915 in Pittston, Pennsylvania, Frank moved to Riverside with his family in 1927. While attending Riverside Poly High School, he was encouraged to try singing because of his "wonderful" speaking voice. In 1936 he won a state-wide KFI radio contest for his baritone singing skills and then went to New York as the featured soloist on the nationally syndicated Maxwell House Radio program. Using the stage name Frank Travis, he appeared with Lucille Ball, Fanny Brice, Edward Arnold, Adolphe Menjou, and Walter Huston. He loved opera and performed across the nation and in Europe.

During World War II, Frank proudly served our country with the 38th Infantry as a sergeant. He was awarded a Good Conduct medal, American Defense Service medal, and an African Middle Eastern Campaign medal. As the first to sing on the BBC in uniform, he performed for King Peter and Princess Alexandra of Yugoslavia. After his performing career, he taught voice at UC Riverside and continued as a private voice instructor until the last few months of his life.

Frank was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, uncle, cousin, and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

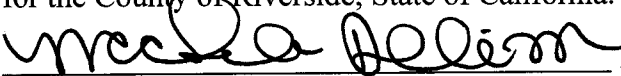

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Francis Mario Tavaglione.
