BACKGROUND:

Summary

On September 11, 2012 (item 3.41) the Board approved three Forensic Pathologist contracts for $50,000 each. Recently one of the doctors retired, Dr. Eugene Carpenter, and is no longer providing Forensic Pathologists services to the County of Riverside for post mortem examinations or autopsies. Dr. Carpenter's contract has a remaining balance of $26,500. The current case load exceeds the fulltime Forensic Pathologist's capabilities, requiring the use of contract service providers. The Coroner's Bureau finds it necessary to allocate the remaining balance of $26,500 from Dr. Carpenter's contract to the remaining two Forensic Pathologists as operational needs require.

The County's Chief Forensic Pathologist works together with a full-time staff of four Forensic Pathologists. However, due to the number of autopsies and external examinations that the Coroner's Bureau performs annually, it must retain qualified physicians on contract to meet the demand.

The Coroner's Office is fortunate that it has found Doctors Garber and Luzi locally, and is requesting the Board continue the contracts with the doctors, due to the scarcity of Board certified Forensic Pathologists with experience in examinations for law enforcement in the State of California.

The Coroners Bureau has experience with Doctors Garber and Luzi. Dr. Garber has provided autopsy services to the County of Riverside since 1995 and Dr. Luzi since 2012.

No additional funds are needed and no budget adjustments are necessary.

Impact on Citizens and Businesses

The use of contractual Forensic Pathologists helps to prevent the delayed release of human remains to families and autopsy findings to criminal cases.

Price Reasonableness

The proposed contracts specify a fixed fee of $550 per autopsy, which was instituted for the contract Forensic Pathologists in 2005. The total annual amount for both Doctors will not exceed $150,000. In comparison, the County's annual pay range for a Forensic Pathologist IV is from $162,846 to $207,073. The contracting Pathologists will only be utilized when necessary with no total annual amount guaranteed.
