BACKGROUND:

Summary

In accordance with Section 3691 et seq. of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, and with prior approval of the Board of Supervisors, The Tax Collector conducted the February 4, 2013 public auction sale. The deed conveying title to the purchasers at the auction was recorded April 1, 2013. Further, as required by Section 4676 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, notice of the right to claim excess proceeds was given on April 24, 2013, to parties of interest as defined in Section 4675 of said code. Parties of interest have been determined by an examination of lot book reports as well as Assessor's and Recorder's records, and various research methods were used to obtain current mailing addresses for these parties of interest.

FORM 11: Recommendation for Distribution of Excess Proceeds for Tax Sale No. 194, Item 36. Last assessed to: Oscar F. Cortez and Inez N. Cortez, husband and wife, as joint tenants. District 1 [$0].

DATE: JUL 22 2015

RECOMMENDED MOTION:

2. Deny the claim from Sandra L. Gravano, attorney for Merced County, Department of Child Support Services;
3. Deny the claims, unless an appeal has been filed in Superior Court, pursuant to the California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 4675.
4. Authorize and direct the Treasurer-Tax Collector to transfer the unclaimed excess proceeds in the amount of $10,560.62 to the county general fund pursuant to Revenue and Taxation Code Section 4674.

BACKGROUND:

Summary (continued)

Revenue and Taxation Code 4676 (b) states that the county shall make reasonable effort to obtain the name and last known mailing address of the parties of interest. Then, if the address of the party of interest cannot be obtained, the county shall publish notice of the right to claim excess proceeds in a newspaper of general circulation in the county as per Revenue and Taxation Code 4676 (c). The Treasurer-Tax Collector's Office has made it a policy to take the following actions to locate the rightful party of the excess proceeds.

- Examined title reports to notify all parties of interest attached to the parcel.
- Researched all last assessee's through the County's Property Tax System for any parties of interest.
- Used Accurint (people finder) to notify any new addresses that may be listed for our parties of interest.
- Advertised in newspapers for three consecutive weeks in the Desert Sun, Palo Verde Valley Times and the Press Enterprise referring any parties of interest to file a claim for the excess proceeds.
- Sent out a certified mailing within 90 days as required by Revenue and Taxation Code 4675.

According to Revenue and Taxation Code 4675 (a) Any party of interest in the property may file with the county a claim for the excess proceeds, in proportion to his or her interest held with others of equal priority in the property at the time of the sale, at any time prior to the expiration of the one year following the recordation of the Tax Collector's deed to the Purchaser, which was recorded on April 1, 2013.

The Treasurer-Tax Collector has received two claims for excess proceeds:

1. Claim from Found Extra Money, LLC, agent for Paul R. Cortez, heir to the Estate of Oscar F. and Inez N. Cortez based on an Authorization for Agent to Collect Excess Proceeds dated March 27, 2014, Grant Deed recorded June 18, 1982 as Instrument No. 105037 and an Affidavit Under California Probate Code Section 13100 dated March 27, 2014.
2. Claim from Sandra L. Gravano, attorney for Merced County, Department of Child Support Services based on Abstract of Support Judgment recorded February 11, 2010 as Instrument No. 2010-0065599 and recorded February 08, 2011 as Instrument No. 2011-0062937.

Pursuant to Section 4675 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, it is the recommendation of this office that Found Extra Money, LLC, agent for Paul R. Cortez, heir to the Estate of Oscar F. and Inez N. Cortez be denied since they were unable to substantiate their claim and Sandra L. Gravano, attorney for Merced County, Department of Child Support Services be denied since the claim was not against our last assessee. Since there are no other claimants, the unclaimed excess proceeds in the amount of $10,560.62 will be transferred to the county general fund. Supporting documentation has been provided. The Tax Collector requests approval of the above recommended motion. Notice of this recommendation was sent to the claimants by certified mail.

Impact on Citizens and Businesses

The excess proceeds are being transferred to the county general fund.

The local child support agency has filed this lawsuit against you. This lawsuit says you and the other parent are the parents of each child named in this complaint and that the obligor may be required to pay child support. The attached proposed Judgment Regarding Parental Obligations (Governmental) (form FL-630) names you and the other parent as parents of each child listed below and, if there is an amount stated in item 6 of the proposed Judgment, orders the obligor to pay support for these children. If you disagree with the proposed Judgment, you must file the attached Answer form with the court clerk within 30 days of the date that you were served with this Complaint. If you do not file an Answer, the proposed Judgment will become a final determination of parentage. If you are required to pay child support, the payments may be taken from your pay or other property without further notice. See the attached statement of your rights and responsibilities for more information.

La agencia local que vigila la manutención de menores ha registrado la presente demanda contra Usted. Esta demanda dice que usted y el otro padre son los padres de los hijos nombrados aquí y que el obligado deberá pagar manutención de menores. Si no está de acuerdo con el FALLO propuesto, deberá registrar el formulario de RESPUESTA que se adjunta, presentándolo al actuario del tribunal dentro de 30 días después de haber recibido notificación de esta DEMANDA. Si usted no registra una REPUESTA, el FALLO propuesto tomará efecto con una determinación final de paternidad. Si se le está exigiendo que pague manutención de menores, los pagos podrán ser deducidos de su salario o de otras pertenencias suyas sin necesidad de mandarle ninguna otra notificación. Para mayor notificación, vea la declaración anexa respecto a los derechos y responsabilidades que tiene.

This case may be referred to a court commissioner for hearing. By law, court commissioners do not have the authority to issue final orders and judgments in contested cases unless they are acting as temporary judges. The court commissioner in your case will act as a temporary judge unless, before the hearing, you or any other party objects to the commissioner acting as a temporary judge. The court commissioner may still hear your case to make findings and a recommended order. If you do not like the recommended order, you must object to it within 10 court days in writing (use Notice of Objection (Governmental), (form FL-666); otherwise, the recommended order will become a final order of the court.) If you object to the recommended order, a judge will make a temporary order and set a new hearing.

Each superior court has a family law facilitator's office to provide education, information, and assistance to parents who have child support issues. The basic duties of the family law facilitator include:

- Providing educational materials;
- Distributing court forms;
- Providing assistance in completing forms;
- Preparing child support guideline calculations; and
- Providing referrals to the local child support agency, family court services, and other community agencies.

The family law facilitator is a neutral person whose services are available to any person who is NOT represented by an attorney. Both parties in the same case may receive assistance from the family law facilitator. There is no attorney-client privilege between the family law facilitator and any person assisted by the family law facilitator, and matters discussed with the family law facilitator are not confidential. No person can be represented by the family law facilitator.

NOTICE TO BOTH PARENTS

The local child support agency has sued both of you to determine whether you are the parents of the children listed and if one or both of you should be ordered to pay child support. The local child support agency does not represent any individual in this lawsuit, including either parent or the children. Carefully read this statement and the other papers that you received.

You have the right to be represented by a lawyer. If you dispute that you are the parent of the children listed in the Complaint and you do not have enough money for a lawyer, you may ask the court to appoint a lawyer to represent you on the issue of parentage.

Other information about court-appointed lawyers (specify):

A blank Answer to Complaint or Supplemental Complaint Regarding Parental Obligations (Governmental) (form FL-610) is included in the papers that were served on you. If you did not receive an Answer form or if you would like another copy, you may get one from the local child support agency, the court clerk's office, or the family law facilitator. The family law facilitator can assist you in filling out the Answer form. You must file your Answer form with the court clerk within 30 days of the date you were served with the Complaint whether or not you obtain an attorney.

Settling Out of Court

You may contact the local child support agency to try to work out a settlement agreement. However, you must still file an Answer form within 30 days. If you and the local child support agency can reach an agreement regarding the requests made in the Complaint, you may sign a settlement agreement called a STIPULATION. By signing a stipulation, you are agreeing to give up your rights explained in this statement, you are agreeing that you are the parent of the children listed in the Complaint, and you are agreeing to obey all of the terms of the stipulation. The stipulation will become a court order that you must obey.

Going to Court

If you file your Answer form, you have the right to a court hearing, to subpoena witnesses, to ask questions of any witness against you, and to present evidence on your behalf. Genetic tests may be performed if the defendant questions parentage of the children listed in the Complaint. If the defendant refuses to cooperate in the genetic testing process, the issue of parentage may be resolved against the defendant. The costs of the genetic testing may be charged to one of you.

This case may be referred to a court commissioner for hearing. By law, court commissioners do not have the authority to issue final orders and judgments in contested cases unless they are acting as temporary judges. The court commissioner in your case will act as a temporary judge unless, before the hearing, you or any other party objects to the commissioner's acting as a temporary judge.

The court commissioner may still hear your case to make findings and a recommended order. If you do not like the recommended order, you must object to it within 10 court days in writing (use Notice of Objection (Governmental) (form FL-666); otherwise, the recommended order will become a final order of the court). If you object to the recommended order, a judge will make a temporary order and set a new hearing.

You can object to the commissioner acting as a temporary judge in one of two ways: (1) by telling the commissioner in court, at the start of your hearing, that you object or (2) by delivering a written objection to the court clerk. You must object before the hearing in your case begins. You do not have to give a reason for your objection.

PETITIONER/PLAINTIFF: COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA RESPONDENT/DEFENDANT: OSCAR F. CORTEZ OTHER PARENT: JESSIE L. CORTEZ	CASE NUMBER:

All orders for support must contain an earnings assignment. If you are obligated to pay support, this assignment will require your employer or other payor to deduct support payments from your salary or earnings and send the payments to the local child support agency. Your employer may also be required to enroll your children in a health insurance plan and deduct the cost from your salary or earnings.

Any amounts you owe may be collected from your property, whether or not you are current in your payments toward past due support. Collection may be made by taking money owed to you by the state or federal government (such as tax refunds, unemployment and disability benefits, and lottery winnings), by taking property you own, by placing a lien on your property, or by any other lawful means. You may be fined or imprisoned if you fail to pay support as ordered.

If the local child support agency does not know how much money the obligor (parent asked to pay support) earns, he or she is presumed to earn enough money to pay the amounts stated in item 6b of the proposed Judgment Regarding Parental Obligations (Governmental) (form FL-630).

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Both parents should tell the local child support agency everything they know about the other parent's earnings and assets.

The defendant is always a party to this action. If the other parent has requested or is receiving services from the local child support agency, that parent will become a party to the lawsuit filed by the local child support agency after the initial support order or medical support order is entered by the court. After the other parent has become a party to the lawsuit either parent may then ask the court to decide issues concerning support, custody, visitation, and restraining orders (domestic violence). No other issues may be raised in this lawsuit. Either parent may go to court to modify the court order. The local child support agency cannot bring proceedings to establish or modify custody, visitation, or restraining orders.

After the other parent has become a party to the lawsuit, either parent may go to court to enforce the existing order against the other, but must first notify the local child support agency as required by law. The local child support agency is allowed 30 days to determine whether or not a parent will be permitted to proceed with the enforcement action against the other parent. The local child support agency may deny a parent permission to proceed if it is currently taking enforcement action or if the action by a parent would interfere with an investigation. If the local child support agency does not respond to the notice by the parent seeking enforcement within 30 days or if the local child support agency notifies the parent seeking enforcement that the enforcement action can proceed, the parent may then file the enforcement action as long as all support is paid through the local child support agency.

If the custodial person receives public assistance, the local child support agency may agree to settle any parentage or support issue in this lawsuit without providing advance notice to the custodial person. A child support agency may not settle any child support issue without the consent of any parent who is an applicant for child support services and who does not receive public assistance.

The local child support agency is required, under section 466(a)(13) of the Social Security Act, to place in the records pertaining to child support the social security number of any individual who is subject to a divorce decree, support order, or paternity determination or acknowledgment. This information is mandatory and will be kept on file at the local child support agency.

ADVISEMENT AND WAIVER OF RIGHTS FOR STIPULATION

1 RIGHT TO BE REPRESENTED BY A LAWYER I understand that I have the right to be represented by a lawyer of my choice at my expense. If I cannot afford a lawyer to represent me, I can ask the court to appoint one to represent me free of charge if I dispute that I am the parent of the children named in this action. I understand that the local child support agency does not represent me.

2 RIGHT TO A TRIAL I understand that I have a right to have a judicial officer (a) determine if I am the parent of the children named in the stipulation, (b) decide how much child support I must pay, and (c) decide how much I owe for arrearages (unpaid support).

3 RIGHT TO CONFRONT AND CROSS EXAMINE WITNESSES I understand that in a trial any allegations made against me must be proved. At the trial I may be present with a lawyer when witnesses testify, and I may ask them questions. I may also present evidence and witnesses.

4 RIGHT TO HAVE PARENTAGE TESTS WHERE THE LAW PERMITS I understand that, where the law permits, I have the right to have the court order parentage tests. The court will decide who pays for the tests. The court could order that I pay none, some, or all of the costs of the tests.

5 I understand that by signing the Stipulation for Judgment I am admitting that I am the parent of the children named in the stipulation and I am giving up the rights stated above.

6 WHERE THE STIPULATION INCLUDES CHILD SUPPORT

a I understand that I will have the duty to obey the support order for the children named in the stipulation until the order is changed by the court or ended by law.

b I also understand that the court will order any support payments to be paid directly from my wages or other earnings and sent to the local child support agency.

7 WHERE THE STIPULATION INCLUDES A PROVISION FOR HEALTH INSURANCE

I understand that I must keep health insurance coverage for the minor children if insurance is available, or becomes available, to me at reasonable cost. A health insurance coverage assignment may be ordered to get health insurance for my children.

8 I am signing the stipulation freely and voluntarily.

9 I understand that the local child support agency is required by state law to enforce the duty of support.

10 I UNDERSTAND THAT IF I WILLFULLY FAIL TO SUPPORT MY CHILDREN, CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS MAY BE INITIATED AGAINST ME.

11 I understand that any support I owe may be collected from any of my property. This collection may be made by intercepting money owed to me by the state or federal government (such as tax refunds, unemployment and disability benefits, and lottery winnings), by taking property I own, by placing a lien on my property, or by any other lawful means.

12 IF I AM REPRESENTED BY AN ATTORNEY, MY ATTORNEY HAS READ AND EXPLAINED TO ME THE STIPULATION, AND THIS ADVISEMENT AND WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND I UNDERSTAND THEM.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.
Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.
Purpose of Form
 A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.
 Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.
Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

Subject: Additional Documentation Needed for EP Claim
Attachments: Personal Property Under California Probate Code 13100.pdf

Hello,

RE: EXCESS PROCEEDS CLAIM FOR PAUL R. CORTEZ / TC 194 ITEM 36 / ASSESSMENT# 322200019-9

I have several questions and requests for additional documentation regarding the claim submitted on behalf of Paul R. Cortez:

1. Did Oscar & Inez have a will or trust? If they do, please send us a copy.
2. Did Oscar & Inez die simultaneously or did one individual pre-decease the other? We need a new 13100 for whoever was alive last or held title last. The 13100 should only have one individuals name and it needs the date of death & County of death filled out along with the other information. (I have attached a blank form)
3. Please send certified death certificates for both Oscar and Inez.
4. The 13100 submitted shows PAUL R. CORTEZ and LOUIE C. CORTEZ as both SONS and GRANDSONS. Which are they? If they are sons, are there any other children/siblings alive or deceased? If they are grandsons, who are their parents?

If you have any questions please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Jason Jacquez
