

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Tavaglione, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Darren Goforth, a 47-year-old Harris County Sheriff's Deputy who was tragically shot and killed in Cypress, Texas while filling up his vehicle with gasoline.

A 10-year veteran of the Harris County Sheriff's Office, Deputy Goforth was an extremely hard worker who was guided by an inner moral compass. He will always be remembered as one of the likeable good guys that made a difference.

Deputy Goforth is survived by his wife Kathleen and his two children, ages five and twelve. He was a loving and devoted husband, father, colleague, neighbor, and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Deputy Darren Goforth.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on September 1, 2015 of Supervisors Minutes.

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Tavaglione, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Alison Bailey Parker, a 24-year-old resident of Roanoke, Virginia and news reporter for CBS affiliate WDBJ in Roanoke who was tragically killed on August 26, 2015 while conducting a live television interview near Smith Mountain Lake in Moneta.

Born on August 19, 1991 in Annapolis, Maryland, Alison grew up in Collinsville, Virginia and graduated from Martinsville High School in 2009. She attended Patrick Henry Community College and was accepted into the James Madison University School of Media Arts and Design. During her college summers, she was a New College Institute intern for The United Way and MURA in Martinsville, and at WDBJ7 in Roanoke, Virginia. After graduating from JMU in 2012, she joined the news team at ABC affiliate WCTI-TV in New Bern, North Carolina as a general assignment news reporter. In 2014 she was hired by WDBJ as a correspondent for the Mornin' and greeted viewers each weekday morning with a smile and her bubbly personality.

Active in the community, Alison was rehearsing to be a contestant in the Valley Stars benefit for the Salvation Army of Roanoke Turning Point, the only secure center for adult survivors and their children who are in imminent danger from family and intimate partner violence. She was also a gymnast, dancer, Piedmont District Swimmer of the Year, Big M Trophy recipient, and a member of the jazz and concert bands where she played both trumpet and French horn.

Alison is survived by the love of her life, Chis Hurst of Roanoke, and her wonderful family. She was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, cousin, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Alison Bailey Parker.

On motion of Supervisor Ashley, seconded by Supervisor Tavaglione, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Adam Ward, a 27-year-old resident of Roanoke, Virginia and photojournalist for CBS affiliate WDBJ in Roanoke who was tragically killed on August 26, 2015 while conducting a live television interview near Smith Mountain Lake in Moneta.

Born on August 26, 1988, Adam, a true Salem Spartan, grew up in Botetourt, Virginia and graduated from Salem High School. In 2011 he graduated from Virginia Tech with a degree in communications and media studies. While at Tech, he discovered journalism and interned on the Greg Roberts Radio Show and at WDBJ-7, which eventually led to a fulltime role. It was there that he met his fiancée Melissa Ott.

Adam was a loving and devoted son, brother, fiancée, and giving friend who will always be remembered as "a champion for the underdog and someone who lived every day to the fullest." His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

On motion of Supervisor Tavaglione, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Carl Kirk Boyer, a former co-owner of E.L. Yeager Construction who passed away on August 8, 2015 and will always be remembered as "a very strong, fair-minded man and a teddy bear at heart."

Born on September 14, 1938 in Olathe, Colorado, Carl was raised in San Bernardino, California. His successful career in construction began when his father helped him get into the Carpenter's Union as an Apprentice Carpenter and he became "hooked."

When he was 26 years old, Carl went to work for E.L. Yeager Construction, one of Southern California's largest general engineering contractors, as a bridge superintendent on a large highway project. At 30, he was in charge of all structure work in the field, and at 32, he started doing all of the structure estimating, along with managing all of the structure field work.

In 1992, Carl became president of E.L. Yeager Construction Company, and in 1994, he and five partners purchased the company from its owners, Jacques and Eugene Yeager. For 10 years, Carl and his partners owned Yeager Construction, building very large highways, bridges, canals, channels, dams, and earthquake repair work before selling to, at the time, the second largest contractor in the world, Skanska."

An inspirational force in the community, Carl belonged to many contractor organizations and sat on some of their boards. He was also a member of the Board of Directors for Loma Linda University Children's Hospital in Loma Linda.

Carl was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

On motion of Supervisor Tavaglione, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Marion Mitchell-Wilson, a longtime resident of Riverside, California who passed away on August 16, 2015 and will always be remembered for "her gracious approach to friends and family, as well as her contributions to historic preservation and Inland Empire literature."

Born on November 30, 1936 in Roanoke, Virginia, Marion began her prominent career as the first professional Director of the Orchard House in Concord, Massachusetts. After moving to California in 1976, she worked at the Office of Historic Preservation and became Acting State Historic Preservation Officer. A Joint Resolution of the California Legislature cited her contributions to the California Heritage Task Force in 1984. She was also an Adjunct Professor in the Program in Historic Resources Management at UCR and contributed to the restoration of the Mission Inn as a member of the OHP staff.

Settling in Riverside in 1989, Marion served as a Historic Preservation Redevelopment Project Manager, drafting the city's first Historic Preservation Element of the General Plan and its first Certified Local Government Ordinance for historic preservation. In 1997, she joined the staff of the Riverside Public Library to found the Riverside Public Library Foundation and serve as its loaned Executive Director. Two years later, she founded the Inlandia Institute, a literary center and regional publishing house. She was the Executive Director Emeritus and a board member of the Inlandia Institute, Secretary of the Riverside Land Conservancy, and a "tireless supporter" of The Pink Ribbon Place.

An instrumental force in the community, Marion was recognized by the Volunteer Center of Riverside in 2010 with a Non-Profit Excellence Award for Individuals and was Riverside East Rotary Club's Rotarian of the Year in 2011-2012. The University of Redland's Town & Gown named her a Woman of Distinction for Volunteerism in the Arts in 2012, and in the same year she was honored as a Riverside City Hero.

Marion was a loving and devoted wife, mother, mentor, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Marion Mitchell-Wilson.

He proudly served in the U.S. Army Air Corps in World War II and later during the Korean War. His career as an engineer and project manager in oil exploration and drilling took him all over the world.

John was a loving husband to his wife Marilyn who preceded him in death. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of John Bennett Morrison.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on September 1, 2015 of Supervisors Minutes.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Gordon Russell Ewig, a 92-year-old resident of Palm Desert, California who passed away on August 11, 2015 and will always be remembered for his "smile, wit, and great intellect."

Born in San Jose, California, Gordon grew up in Carmel, California and attended Carmel High School, Stanford (Class of 1946), and Stanford Business School (Class of 1948). He proudly served our country as a Naval Officer aboard L.S.T. 926 in World War II.

After the war, Gordon married Virginia Crichton in 1946 and they shared 69 wonderful years together. His professional career was primarily in the cemetery and mortuary business where he served in an executive capacity, on many boards, as well as President of the industry's National (NCA) and International (ICCFA) Associations.

Gordon was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Carolyn Ruth Taft Harris, a resident of Indio, California who passed away after a courageous battle with lung cancer.

Born in Rosemead, California, Carolyn was 10 years old when her family moved to Arcadia where she spent her childhood. After graduating from Arcadia High School in 1958, she obtained her teaching degree in 1962 from California State University, Los Angeles and her Masters of Science in Education/Reading in 1985 from California State University, Fullerton.

Carolyn married her husband Keith in 1981 and together they shared over 33 years of "love, joy, and happiness." Settling in Hacienda Heights to raise a family, she specialized in teaching elementary school age children with reading challenges in Covina and Glendale School Districts. In 1998 they retired to Heritage Palms in Indio. In retirement, she remained active working for Coachella Valley School District and serving as secretary of the Women's Golf Club.

Carolyn was a loving and devoted wife, mother, step-mother, sister, aunt, and friend. Her memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Anthony Dale "Tony" Maddox, a resident of Palm Desert, California who passed away on August 7, 2015 and will always be remembered for "his tenacity and high standards for accuracy in the survey world."

Born on July 21, 1947 in Phoenix, Arizona, Anthony grew up in Phoenix and after high school spent his freshman year of college studying on a ship while sailing around the world. He joined the U.S. Army in 1970 as a Personnel Specialist, attained rank of Specialist 5th Class, and proudly served a tour of duty in Vietnam.

After his honorable discharge from the Military in 1974, Anthony attended Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff with a major in Civil Engineering Technology. His Civil Engineering career led him to work in the 1970's and 1980's for Michael Petyo & Associates and Collar Williams & White Engineering in Arizona.

Anthony became licensed by the State of California as a Land Surveyor, and in 1989 he joined Mainiero, Smith, & Associates, now MSA Consulting. He recently retired after 26 years with MSA Consulting, Inc., serving as a Senior Survey Analyst.

Anthony was a loving and devoted husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Betty Ann Maytag, a resident of Indian Wells, California who will always be remembered for her "wit, uncommon wisdom, love of animals, and compassionate heart."

Raised in Southern California, Betty and her husband Dave spent many years traveling while their main homes were near Jackson Hole, Wyoming and Colorado Springs, Colorado. After falling in love with the Desert, they bought a home in Indian Wells where they enjoyed spending their winters.

An inspirational force in the community, Betty always looked for ways to help the animals and believed in putting good intentions and thoughtful caring ideas into actual effort and hard work. While living in Colorado, she volunteered with the Dumb Friends League, a one hundred year-old humane organization, becoming the Vice-President on their Board of Directors. In the Desert, she joined the Auxiliary for Animal Samaritans and worked on special events and a monthly pet adoption booth at Saks Fifth Avenue. She also served on the Board of Directors for 10 years, becoming a two-term president.

Betty's memory and selfless spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates her service to the County of Riverside.

On motion of Supervisor Benoit, seconded by Supervisor Ashley, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, September 1, 2015, be adjourned in memory of Susan Templeton, a longtime resident who after a courageous battle with esophageal cancer passed away on August 12, 2015.

Born on June 18, 1931 in Terre Haute, Indiana, Susan graduated from Indiana University. Her successful careers were with both IBM Corporation in Indianapolis and Washington D.C. and Plumb Supply Company of Des Moines, Iowa.

An active member of the community, Susan was a member of the USTA and the Senior Women's Tennis Association. She played locally at both the Indian Wells Tennis Garden and Shadow Mountain Tennis Club and played nationally in SWTA tournaments. In the 70's age group, she and her doubles partner were ranked 7th in the nation. She was also a member of the Palm Desert Community Presbyterian Church, where she served as Deacon Moderator and was involved in the Deacon's Care Day Program.

Susan was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and friend whose memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be dearly missed but never forgotten.
