Born on February 23, 1928 in Fort Smith, Arkansas, "Charlie" grew up in a family of musicians and played the mandolin by the age of 7 when the "King Family Orchestra" entertained on the radio and at dances. When his family relocated to California during the Dust Bowl, they picked fruits, vegetables, and cotton during the day. At night they picked banjos, fiddles, guitars, and mandolins for the dances held at the Migrant Farm Labor Camps where they lived.

As a student at Beaumont High School in 1944, Charlie met the love of his life, Novella Danchak. They were married in 1948 and moved to Indio where they raised a family of seven "musical" children. He was employed with the Automobile Club of Southern California until his massive stroke in 1975. Through determination, strength, and courage, he successfully rehabilitated himself.

Active in the community, Charlie and Novella were members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church where Charles served a term as Knights of Columbus Grand Knight and participated in the 3rd Degree. He received an Associate of Arts Degree at College of the Desert, was a member of the OLPH Parish Council, worked in RCIA, and sang bass in the choir. He also became the first man to join the John F. Kennedy Hospital Auxiliary where he became president and worked side by side with Novella for more than 30 years.

Charlie was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.
