BACKGROUND: Community Designation funds will be given to the following organizations:

1. Mt. San Jacinto College Foundation—annual funds will be used towards supporting and assisting in the growth and sustainability of an educated workforce within the county as well as providing scholarships to first generation students from low income families.
2. Puente Project/Cinema Cultura Educational Partnership—funding will support undeserved and disadvantaged high school and college students within the district with achieving high education goals. The Puente Project will provide hands-on educational information and experience to students regarding art and filming.
3. H.E.L.P., Inc.—annual support will assist with providing food to needy families in the pass area.
