BACKGROUND:

Summary (continued)

The Treasurer-Tax Collector has received 2 claims for excess proceeds:

1. Claim from Brady J. Lighthall, assignee for E*Trade Bank based on and Assignment of Right to Collect Excess Proceeds dated November 29, 2012, an Open End Deed of Trust recorded May 24, 2005 as Instrument No. 2005-0410975 and a Corporate Assignment of Deed of Trust recorded July 27, 2011 as Instrument No. 2011-0328867.
2. Claim from the Riverside County Treasurer-Tax Collector based on a Certificate of Lien recorded on June 28, 2007 as Instrument No. 2007-0419331 and a Certificate of Lien recorded on May 8, 2008 as Instrument No. 2008-0246643.

Pursuant to Section 4675 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, it is the recommendation of this office that Brady J. Lighthall, assignee for E*Trade Bank be awarded excess proceeds in the amount of $8,844.76. Since the amount claimed by Brady J. YOU AND WE covenant and agree as follows:

1. Payment of Principal, Interest and Other Charges. You shall pay when due the principal and interest owing under the Agreement and all other charges due hereunder and due under the Agreement.

2. Application of Payments. Unless applicable law provides otherwise, all payments received by us under the Agreement and Section 1 shall be applied by us as provided in the Agreement.

3. Prior Deed of Trusts; Charges; Liens. You have disclosed to us and obtained our approval of any mortgage, deed of trust or other security agreement with a lien which has priority over this Deed of Trust. You shall perform all of your obligations under any mortgage, deed of trust or other security instruments with a lien which has priority over this Deed of Trust, including your covenants to make payments when due. You shall pay all taxes, assessments, charges, fines and impositions attributable to the Property which may attain priority over this Deed of Trust or any advance under this Deed of Trust, and leasehold payments or ground rents, if any. Upon our request, you shall promptly furnish to us all notices of amounts to be paid under this paragraph and receipts evidencing any such payments you make directly. You shall promptly discharge any lien (other than a lien disclosed to us in your application or in any title report we obtained) which has priority over this Deed of Trust or any advance under this Deed of Trust.

If applicable law authorizes us to do so, we specifically reserve to ourself and our successors and assigns the unilateral right, upon an event of default in payment of taxes, assessments or insurance on the Property, to require, upon notice, that you pay to us on the day monthly payments are due an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the yearly taxes, and assessments (including condominium and planned unit development assessments, if any) which may attain priority over this Deed of Trust and ground rents on the Property, if any, plus one-twelfth (1/12) of yearly premium installments for hazard and mortgage insurance, all as we reasonably estimate initially and from time to time, as allowed by and in accordance with applicable law.

4. Hazard Insurance. You shall keep the Property insured against loss by fire, hazards included within the term "extended coverage" and any other hazards, including floods or flooding and earthquakes, for which we require insurance. This insurance shall be maintained in the amounts and for the periods that we require. You may choose any insurer reasonably acceptable to us. Insurance policies and renewals shall be acceptable to us and shall include a standard mortgagee clause. If we require, you shall promptly give us all receipts of paid premiums and renewal notices. If you fail to maintain coverage as required in this section, you authorize us to obtain such coverage as we in our sole discretion determine appropriate to protect our interest in the Property in accordance with the provisions in Section 6. You understand and agree that any coverage we purchase may cover only our interest in the Property and may not cover your interest in the Property or any personal property therein. You also understand and agree that the premium for any such insurance may be higher than the premium you would pay for such insurance. You shall promptly notify the insurer and us of any loss. We may make proof of loss if you do not promptly do so.

We may also, at our option and on your behalf, adjust and compromise any claims under the insurance, give releases or acquittances to the insurance company in connection with the settlement of any claim and collect and receive insurance proceeds. You appoint us as your attorney-in-fact to do all of the foregoing, which appointment you understand and agree is irrevocable, coupled with an interest with full power of substitution and shall not be affected by your subsequent disability or incompetence.

Insurance proceeds shall be applied to restore or repair the Property damaged, if restoration or repair is economically feasible and our security would not be lessened. Otherwise, insurance proceeds shall be applied to sums secured by this Deed of Trust, whether or not then due, with any excess paid to you. If you abandon the Property, or do not answer within 30 days after we give notice to you that the insurer has offered to settle a claim, then we may collect and use the proceeds to repair or restore the Property or to pay sums secured by this Deed of Trust, whether or not then due. Any application of proceeds to principal shall not require us to extend or postpone the due date of monthly payments or change the amount of monthly payments. If we acquire the Property at a forced sale following your default, your right to any insurance proceeds resulting from damage to the Property prior to the acquisition shall pass to us to the extent of the sums secured by this Deed of Trust immediately prior to the acquisition.

You shall not permit any condition to exist on the Property which would, in any way, invalidate the insurance coverage on the Property.

LOAN #: E0374395

5. Preservation, Maintenance and Protection of the Property; Your Loan Application; Leaseholds. You shall not destroy, damage or substantially change the Property, allow the Property to deteriorate, or commit waste. You shall be in default if any forfeiture action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, is begun that in our good faith judgment could result in forfeiture of the Property or otherwise materially impair the lien created by this Deed of Trust or our security interest. You may cure such a default, as provided in Section 17, by causing the action or proceeding to be dismissed with a ruling that, in our good faith determination, precludes forfeiture of your interest in the Property or other material impairment of the lien created by this Deed of Trust or our security interest. You shall also be in default if you, during the loan application process, gave materially false or inaccurate information or statements to us (or failed to provide us with any material information) in connection with the loan evidenced by the Agreement, including, but not limited to, representations concerning your occupancy of the Property as a principal residence. If this Deed of Trust is on a leasehold, you shall comply with the lease. You shall not surrender the leasehold estate and interests herein conveyed or terminate or cancel the ground lease. You shall not, without the express written consent of Lender, alter or amend the ground lease. If you acquire fee title to the Property, the leasehold and fee title shall not merge unless we agree to the merger in writing.

6. Protection of Our Rights in the Property; Mortgage Insurance. If you fail to perform the covenants and agreements contained in this Deed of Trust, or there is a legal proceeding that may significantly affect our rights in the Property (such as a proceeding in bankruptcy, probate, for condemnation or forfeiture or to enforce laws or regulations), then we may do, and pay for, anything necessary to protect the Property's value and our rights in the Property. Our actions may include paying any sums secured by a lien which has priority over this Deed of Trust or over any advance under the Agreement or this Deed of Trust, appearing in court, paying reasonable attorney's fees, paying any sums which you are required to pay under this Deed of Trust and entering on the Property to make repairs. We do not have to take any action we are permitted to take under this Section; and amounts we pay under this Section shall become additional debts you owe us and shall be secured by this Deed of Trust. These amounts shall bear interest from the disbursement date at the rate established under the Agreement and shall be payable, with interest, upon our request. If we required mortgage insurance as a condition of making the loan secured by this Deed of Trust, you shall pay the premiums for such insurance until such time as the requirement for the insurance terminates.

7. Inspection. We may enter and inspect the Property at any reasonable time and upon reasonable notice.

8. Condemnation. The proceeds of any award for damages, direct or consequential, in connection with any condemnation or other taking of any part of the Property, or for conveyance in lieu of condemnation, are hereby assigned and shall be paid to us. If the Property is abandoned, or if, after notice by us to you that the condemnor offers to make an award or settle a claim for damages, you fail to respond to us within 30 days after the date the notice is given, we are authorized to collect and apply the proceeds, at our option, either to restoration or repair of the Property or to the sums secured by this Deed of Trust, whether or not then due. Unless we and you otherwise agree in writing, any application of proceeds to principal shall not extend or postpone the due date of the monthly payments payable under the Agreement and Section 1 or change the amount of such payments.

9. No Release Upon Extension or Modification. Our granting of any extension of time for payment or our agreement to modify the terms of repayment of the obligations under the Agreement or the requirements in this Deed of Trust shall not operate to release you from your obligations or liability under the Agreement or this Deed of Trust.

10. Successors and Assigns Bound; Joint and Several Liability; Co-signers. The covenants and agreements of this Deed of Trust shall bind and benefit your successors and permitted assigns. Your covenants and agreements shall be joint and several. Anyone who co-signs this Deed of Trust but does not execute the Agreement: (a) is co-signing this Deed of Trust only to mortgage, grant and convey such person's interest in the Property; (b) is not personally obligated to pay the Agreement, but is obligated to pay all other sums secured by this Deed of Trust; and (c) agrees that we and anyone else who signs this Deed of Trust may agree to extend, modify, forbear or make any accommodations regarding the terms of this Deed of Trust or the Agreement without such person's consent.

11. Loan Charges. If the loan secured by this Deed of Trust is subject to a law which sets maximum loan charges, and that law is finally interpreted so that the interest or other loan charges collected or to be collected in connection with the loan exceed the permitted limits, then: (a) any such loan charge shall be reduced by the amount necessary to reduce the charge to the permitted limit; and (b) any sums already collected from you which exceed permitted limits will be refunded to you. We may choose to make this refund by reducing the principal owed under the Agreement or by making a direct payment to you. If a refund reduces principal, the reduction will be treated as a partial prepayment without any prepayment charge under the Agreement.

12. Notices. Unless otherwise required by law, any notice to you provided for in this Deed of Trust shall be delivered or mailed by first class mail to the Property Address or any other address you designate by notice to us, and any notice to us shall be delivered or mailed by first class mail to our address stated above or any other address we designate by notice to you.

13. Governing Law; Severability. The interpretation and enforcement of this Deed of Trust shall be governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the Property is located, except as preempted by federal law. In the event that any provision or clause of this Deed of Trust or the Agreement conflicts with applicable law, such conflict shall not affect other provisions of this Deed of Trust or the Agreement which can be given effect without the conflicting provision. To this end the provisions of this Deed of Trust and the Agreement are declared to be severable.

14. Transfer of the Property. If all or any part of the Property or any interest in it is sold or transferred without our prior written consent, we may, at our option, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Deed of Trust. However, this option shall not be exercised by us if exercise is prohibited by federal law as of the date of this Deed of Trust.

15. Sale of Agreement; Change of Loan Servicer. The Agreement or a partial interest in the Agreement (together with this Deed of Trust) may be sold one or more times without prior notice to you. A sale may result in a change in the entity (known as the "Loan Servicer") that collects monthly payments due under the Agreement and this Deed of Trust. There also may be one or more changes of the Loan Servicer unrelated to the sale of the Agreement. If there is a change of the Loan Servicer, you will be given written notice of the change as required by applicable law. The notice will state the name and address of the new Loan Servicer and the address to which payments should be made. The notice will also contain any information required by applicable law.

16. Hazardous Substances. You shall not cause or permit the presence, use, disposal, storage, or release of any Hazardous Substances on or in the Property. You shall not do, nor allow anyone else to do, anything affecting the Property that is in violation of any Environmental Law. The preceding two sentences shall not apply to the presence, use, or storage on the Property of Hazardous Substances in quantities that are generally recognized to be appropriate to normal residential uses and to maintenance of the Property. You shall promptly give us written notice of any investigation, claim, demand, lawsuit or other action by any governmental or regulatory agency or private party involving the Property and any Hazardous Substance or Environmental Law of which you have actual knowledge. If you learn or are notified by any government or regulatory authority, that any removal or other remediation of any Hazardous Substance affecting the Property is necessary, you shall promptly take all necessary remedial actions in accordance with Environmental Law. As used in this Deed of Trust, "Hazardous Substances" are those substances defined as toxic or hazardous substances by Environmental Law and the following substances: gasoline, kerosene, other flammable or toxic petroleum products, toxic pesticides and herbicides, volatile solvents, materials containing asbestos or formaldehyde, and radioactive materials. As used in this Deed of Trust, "Environmental Law" means federal laws and laws of the jurisdiction where the Property is located that relate to health, safety or environmental protection.

17. Acceleration; Remedies. You will be in default if (1) any payment required by the Agreement or this Deed of Trust is not made when it is due; (2) we discover that you have committed fraud or made a material misrepresentation in connection with the Agreement; or (3) your action, or your failure to act, adversely affects our security for the Agreement or any right we have in the Property. If a default occurs, we will give you notice specifying: (a) the default; (b) the action required to cure the default; (c) a date, not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given to you, by which the default must be cured; and (d) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Deed of Trust and sale of the Property. The notice shall further inform you of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to bring a court action to assert the nonexistence of a default or any other defense you may have to acceleration and sale. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, we, at our option, may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Deed of Trust without further demand and may invoke the power of sale and other remedies permitted by applicable law. We shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing remedies provided in this Section 17, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees as permitted by applicable law.

If we invoke the power of sale, we shall execute or cause Trustee to execute a written notice of the occurrence of an event of default and of our election to cause the Property to be sold. Trustee shall cause this notice to be recorded in each county in which any part of the Property is located. We or the Trustee shall mail copies of the notice as prescribed by applicable law to you and to the other persons prescribed by applicable law. G. ASSIGNMENT OF LEASES. Upon our request after default, you shall assign to us all leases of the Property and all security deposits made in connection with leases of the Property. You absolutely and unconditionally assign and transfer to us all the rents and revenues ("Rents") of the Property, regardless of to whom the Rents of the Property are payable. You authorize us or our agents to collect the Rents, and agree that each tenant of the Property shall pay the Rents to us or our agents. However, you shall receive the Rents until (i) we have given you notice of default pursuant to Section 17 of the Security Instrument and (ii) we have given notice to the tenant(s) that the Rents are to be paid to us or our agent. If the Rents of the Property are not sufficient to cover the costs of taking control of and managing the Property and of collecting the Rents any funds expended by us for such purposes shall become indebtedness secured by the Security Instrument pursuant to Section 6.

You represent and warrant that you have not executed any prior assignment of the Rents and have not performed, and will not perform, any act that would prevent us from exercising our rights under this paragraph.

However, we, or our agents or a judicially appointed receiver, may do so at any time when a default occurs. Re: ESIGN Study - Comment P004102

Dear Sir or Madam:

E*TRADE Bank, a federal savings bank located in Arlington, Virginia, is pleased to submit the following comments to the Federal Trade Commission and the National Telecommunications and Information Administration regarding the consumer consent provisions of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act ("ESIGN" or the "Act")⁽¹⁾ set forth in Section 10(c)(1)(C)(ii) of the Act.

E*TRADE Bank is wholly owned thrift subsidiary of E*TRADE Group, Inc., a global leader in online personal financial services. The Bank is the largest internet bank in the U.S., with over $11 billion in assets, $6 billion in deposits, and 362,000 customer accounts. The Bank has achieved the number one position in online retail banking by leveraging technology to deliver superior value to its national customer base through innovative products and the highest levels of service. As such, the Bank has a different and somewhat unique business perspective with respect to consumers' use of electronic records and the consent requirements in ESIGN.

E*TRADE Bank strongly supports the notion of consumer consent incorporated into Section 10(c)(1)(C)(ii) of the Act. In the Bank's view, doing what the customer wants is simply a matter of common sense and good business practice. If one of the Bank's customers prefers to receive monthly statements and other notices in written form through the mail, then it is clearly in the Bank's best interests to abide by and honor that preference.

Although the Bank does not operate a traditional network of brick and mortar branches, it does provide a variety of "touchpoints" through which customers can open accounts, communicate with it, and conduct banking transactions. For example, individuals who desire to open accounts with the Bank can either go online, call a toll-free number or send in a written application and an initial deposit by mail. The Bank's customers can also withdraw funds from their accounts at over 9,000 ATMs operated by its affiliate E*TRADE Access, as well as many other ATMs that are part of the Cirrus network. The flexibility and convenience that E*TRADE Bank is able to offer individuals who bank with it is one of the key contributors to the strong growth of the Bank's customer base over the past year and its success in competing against other online banks.

Just as the Bank's customers are able to choose how they transact business and communicate with the Bank, they should also be able to choose how the Bank communicates with them. A number of the Bank's customers prefer not to be bothered with written monthly statements and notices and elect to view their accounts and bank online. Others still want to receive their statements and other communications on paper. The customer's preference should dictate how and in what form the information is sent. Accordingly, E*TRADE Bank fully agrees that consumers should only receive information by electronic means if they consent to that particular delivery method.

However, the Bank does not believe that the provisions in ESIGN that detail the specifics of how a consumer's consent must be obtained are either necessary or desirable. As set forth in clause (ii), in order for a consumer consent to be effective, (1) the consumer must consent electronically or confirm his or her consent electronically, and (2) the form of the consent must "reasonably demonstrate" the consumer's ability to access the information sent.

The Bank understands the concerns expressed by some that the above two elements of the consent requirement in ESIGN are necessary to protect consumers who are not able to or interested in obtaining information by an electronic means. But common sense dictates that the vast majority of businesses dealing with consumers will take whatever steps that they reasonably deem necessary to make sure that a consumer (1) has given his or her knowing and informed consent and (2) has the ability to receive communications electronically. An entity that sends information electronically runs the twin risks of losing a customer and/or violating consumer protection laws requiring delivery of notices if the customer has not consented to or is unable to receive electronic communications. Senders of information such as the Bank will therefore have a very strong incentive to adhere to consumers' wishes and make sure that its communications are being received in a readable/understandable format.

In addition, E*TRADE Bank is concerned that the electronic consent and "reasonably demonstrates" components of the consumer consent provision will add an additional layer of communication exchanges that would be irksome and cumbersome to consumers. Take the case, for example, of an individual who opens an account with the Bank using an application form printed in a newspaper or magazine. On the form, the individual would be asked to provide his or her e-mail address and would be asked to check a box if he or she wanted to receive notifications electronically and view statements online. Before the Bank could start sending information electronically to the customer, it would have to, at a minimum, send an e-mail and obtain a response back from him or her. While this can be a simple process, it could easily be interpreted as the Bank needlessly "second guessing" the customer's statement on the application form that he or she is able to receive communications electronically. There is also the possibility that the customer, for whatever reason, does not check his or her e-mail regularly, and it could be some period of time before the Bank receives a confirming response back from that person.

At least one other commenter has noted the concern that computer software, etc. may be incompatible such that the possibility exists that an e-mail will be unreadable by the recipient, or that a consumer's browser will not allow the person to access a web site where electronic information can be viewed. While this may have been a legitimate concern in the past, and the problem still exists to some degree when files or documents are sent as attachments to e-mails, the Bank does not believe that the issue rises to the level where it needed to be addressed in the Act. Also, the Bank would not send its customers an electronic copy of their statement by e-mail, but instead would simply send an e-mail notifying customers of their ability to view their statements by logging-in to a secure environment over the World Wide Web. As noted previously, it would be in the interest of the institution providing the statement on-line to make sure that the materials could be viewed on standard software and hardware. As long as the consumer has the means to change his or her preference for electronic over paper if any problem should arise, it should not prove necessary to require specific notification of software or hardware requirements in advance.

In sum, E*TRADE Bank believes that it should be the consumer's decision whether or not to receive statements, required notices and other information electronically. However, the Bank is of the view that the process of how a consumer's consent is obtained is best left to the parties involved in the communication.

Again, E*TRADE Bank appreciates this opportunity to offer its comments on the consumer consent provisions in Section 101(c)(1)(C)(ii) of ESIGN.

Very truly yours,

John A. Buchman
General Counsel
