BACKGROUND:

Summary (continued)

The total cost for the five presentations of the 80 hour mandated course is estimated to be $125,005. After accounting for the State funding from POST ($34,650) and Moreno Valley College ($49,200), the remaining class presentation cost is $41,155. Approximately $16,450 of this amount will be recovered by charging an estimated 50 students, who are not RSD employees, a fee of $329 each to attend the class. The remaining students who are RSD employees that attend will require NCC funding in the amount for $24,705.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

This law enforcement course covers topics vital to the sworn first-line supervisor. Course topics include Values, Principles, Ethics, Leadership Styles, Assertive Leadership, Employee Performance Appraisals, Counseling, and Discipline. The costs for the classes are partially reimbursed by POST. Local presentation of the classes at the training center saves the County student travel and possible lodging expense.
