Born on August 3, 1921 in Homestead, Pennsylvania, Paul encountered many challenges early in life as a child of the Depression and with the death of his mother. He left home as a teenager and traveled across the continent relying on his wit, hard work, and the kindness of strangers.

A true patriot, Paul joined the United States Army shortly after Pearl Harbor and turned it into a 21-year military career. He had tours of duty in European Theater combat zones, commanded a gunnery school for various Army Air Corps bombers, and served the rest of his career as officer-in-charge of various support and administrative operations before retiring as a Major from the Air Force in 1962.

For his second career, Paul joined Security Pacific Bank as a Loan Officer, eventually retiring from the Sun City Branch in 1984. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, jeeping, travelling around the world, and the beauty of the Colorado Rockies. He also built an A-Frame in Rico which he shared in the summertime with his children and grandchildren.

Paul was a loving husband to his wives, Murlene and Wanda, who preceded him in death and a devoted father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and friend. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.

Born on July 1, 1927 in Mentone, California, Keith proudly served in the United States Navy during World War II aboard the battle ship USS New Jersey. In 1957, Keith joined the Redlands Fire Department and worked his way up the ranks to an engineer. His career with the Fire Department ended in 1981 when he was forced into an early retirement due to a heart attack. However, he continued to set tile, passing the tricks of the trade on to his sons Mike and Cleve, with Mike taking over the business in 1986.

Keith's talent with tile is in many homes and businesses in the Inland Empire area. He "loved The Lord and he loved life." He also enjoyed singing, playing guitar, doing crosswords, whistling, and telling jokes.
