BACKGROUND:

1. The donation to Operation Safehouse will help the organization continue to provide services to run away, homeless and at-risk youth by providing comprehensive programs designed to assist youth and their families in opening the lines of communication and creating intervention points before the youth runaway or before CPS is called in.
2. The donation to Jurupa Valley Adopt a Family will be used to support their programs which include the Santa Express which provides gifts to needy kids as well as their youth development, senior and veteran's assistance programs and career and business assistance programs.
3. The donation to the Lake Norconian Foundation will be used to sponsor the Pearl Harbor Remembrance Ceremony which highlights Norco's Naval Heritage as a hospital whose first patients were from that terrible attack as well as to honor those who died and survived.
4. The donation to Christmas Trees of Hope will be used to sponsor a tree for a foster home and all proceeds of this project are used to purchase and distribute gifts to needy children in the Home Gardens area.
