BACKGROUND:

Summary (continued)

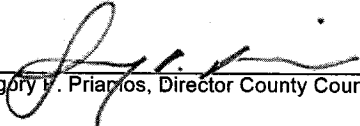

An example of such a client reintegration program are the three Day Reporting Centers currently located in Riverside, Indio, and Temecula. These centers are operated in collaboration with Riverside University Health System-Behavioral Health (RUHS-BH), Riverside County Office of Education, Workforce Development, Department of Public Social Services, Riverside University Health System-Public Health, and Veterans' Services to support the realignment population. Services and programs provided include: Substance Use Education, Criminal and Addictive Thinking, Anger Management, Positive Parenting, Nurturing Parenting, Courage to Change, Life Coaching, General Relief, Medi-Cal outreach and assistance, general education, high school diploma, job readiness, peer support, and cognitive behavior counseling. In addition, RUHS-BH provides mental health screenings, assessments and treatment on site, which can result in a referral to a psychiatrist for medication evaluation at a RUHS-BH clinic, if needed.

In order to assist with client reintegration, various community and business organizations have offered to contribute items to Probation to help provide support to clients (such as clothing, hygiene kits, etc.). Probation is seeking the authority to accept the donation of such items (with a value of not more than $5,000 per donation) to bring the department in line with State guidelines. Probation will notify the Executive Office and Auditor Controller's Office as part of the quarterly or year-end budget reports should any person, community, or business organization donate more than $20,000 during any fiscal year.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Probation's presence throughout the county continues to provide an important public benefit to the community by serving clients where they live and effectively improving public safety. The acceptance of such donations provides an opportunity for the various community and business organizations to help provide support to clients to assist with reintegration.
