BACKGROUND:

Summary

1. The Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians will host the annual Richard M. Milanovich Legacy Hike on May 5, 2017. This event will raise funds for the Richard M. Milanovich Fellowship which was created to give Native American students the opportunity to participate in a semester of political leadership in Washington DC. CID funds will be used to support the Richard M. Milanovich Fellowship.

2. Angel View, Inc. is a non-profit supporting a wide range of services to children and adults with disabilities to help them reach their maximum potential. These services includes residential nursing care, therapeutic day programs and weekday socialization activities. Angel View is expanding their services and offering a family stabilization case management component to their program. CID funds will be used to support the services and programs.

3. The College of the Desert Public Safety Academy provides training and educational opportunities for students to pursue a career in public safety. Each semester an exceptional cadet in Basic Peace Officer Training Module-II is selected for outstanding accomplishments. CID funds will be used to provide a $500 scholarship for two cadets, one from each semester. The Basic Peace Officer Training Module-II Outstanding Cadet Awards will be held on May 2, 2017, and December 18, 2017.

4. Friends of the Desert Mountains hosted the annual Coachella Valley Wildflower Festival on March 4, 2017. This event included guided hikes, crafts and educational activities for all age groups and provided material to teach visitors about the Coachella Valley. CID funds will be used toward the cost of transportation.
5. The Joslyn Center will host the 8th Annual Runway Fashion Show on March 23, 2017. The Joslyn Center provides critical services, care, support and programs to local seniors in Palm Desert. The funds raised at this event will continue to provide services. CID funds will be used toward the cost of the event such as food, equipment and marketing.
6. The Joslyn Center will host the National Senior Health and Fitness Day on May 26, 2017. This health fair will be held in conjunction with the industry leaders in the areas of senior health and fitness. The health fair will provide vital information, activities and lectures for seniors in the Coachella Valley. CID funds will be used toward the cost of marketing and postage.
7. The Regional Access Project (RAP) Foundation serves as the fiscal agent for the scholarship fund for the Fourth District Youth Advisory Council (YAC). YAC members are high school students who participate in monthly community and county service projects in the Fourth District. CID funds will go to the RAP foundation to support the scholarship fund.
8. The Rotary Club of Palm Desert Foundation hosted the annual Education Hall of Fame luncheon on February 21, 2017. This event raised college scholarship funds for local high school seniors in the Coachella Valley. The Palm Desert Rotary will award scholarships in the amount of $1,000 to qualifying high school seniors to attend College of the Desert or California State University, San Bernardino Palm Desert. CID funds will be used to underwrite one scholarship.
9. The Indio Rotary will host the Math Field Day on May 13, 2017 at John Glenn Middle School in Indio. Three school districts in the Coachella Valley, and private schools, participate with more than 350 students competing for recognition for themselves and their schools. This event encourages students to study and enjoy math while motivating them to develop and apply their math skills. CID funds will be used to purchase awards for the winning students.
10. The Unforgettables Foundation is a non-profit organization that gives low-income families the ability to give their child a dignified burial. The Unforgettables Foundation will host the 4th annual Children & Families in Crisis Conference on April 28, 2017. The conference is comprised of three keynote speakers and panel discussions. The goal is to give better understanding of the mechanisms that lead to and sustain addiction. CID funds will be used to support the burial project.

11. The Unforgettables Foundation is a non-profit organization that gives low-income families the ability to give their child a dignified burial. The organization provides support and encouragement through financial assistance in the funeral and burial costs. CID funds will be used to assist 10 families with these expenses.
12. The United Way of The Desert is hosting the 27th annual United Way of the Desert Gala on May 12, 2017. All funds raised at this Gala will benefit the Community Impact Fund, which supports 25 programs in the Coachella Valley, working within the mission to break the cycle of poverty in the Coachella Valley. CID funds will be used towards the cost of the event such as food, marketing, entertainment and audio-visual needs.
13. The Family YMCA of the Desert provides child-care and programs for more than 3,600 children and families each day at 42 sites throughout the Coachella Valley from Palm Springs to Mecca. The YMCA has a tuition assistance program to ensure that low-income families can participate in programs such as basketball, flag football, and youth and government. CID funds will be used to support the program/curriculum development and tuition assistance fund.
