BACKGROUND: Community Designation funds will be given to the following organizations:

1. Santa Rosa Plateau Nature Education Foundation – donation will be used to assist the educational programs and services for young scholars, grades 3-12. Programs such as the Santa Rosa Plateau Ecological Reserve (SRPER), give students the educational experience for natural science.
2. National Association for Female Executives – funding will be used to provide programs, services and resources for women throughout the Fifth District. These various services will assist them in developing educationally and professionally by networking and public advocacy through events such as the National Association for Female Executives Conference and more.
