BACKGROUND:

1. The donation to Inspire Life Skills will be used to continue to help former foster and homeless youth have a safe and stable place to live while attending college and learning life skills.
2. The donation to Rogue Techs will be used to help fund the application and registration fees to US First Robotics so students can compete in regional competitions and help defray the cost of building the competition robot.
3. The donation to the Rubidioux Family Resource Center will be used to sponsor the Women's Empowerment and Employment Skills Conference and the Toastmaster Youth Leadership Program.
4. The donation to the RCCD Foundation will be used to support "The Starting Blocks" program, which provides free swim and water safety lessons to children in the community.
