RE: Support of Conditional Use Permit No. 3757

I support the County of Riverside granting a Conditional Use Permit 3757 for the Property located at 36500 De Portola Road, Temecula, CA 92592.

As a supporter of this company's mission to treat, aid and support those who are battling addiction and commend their efforts. I have personally been impacted by addiction through the death of one my family's close friend's son, at the age of 32, of an unexpected cover-dose and know that those who seek help have every right to admit into facilities such as Southern California Addiction Center regardless of the location. Above and beyond a typical location, this specific property requesting the conditional use permit is secluded and secure. The rolling Temecula hills provide a tranquil environment for people to focus on their recovery.

As a supporter of Drug and Alcohol Recovery, I encourage Riverside County to grant Southern California Addiction Center the Conditional Use Permit as applied for. They have sought out this process and are in compliance with all that the County has asked of them. I am supportive of Southern California Addiction Centers application for Conditional Use Permit Application 3757 in Riverside County.

I support the County of Riverside granting a Conditional Use Permit 3757 for the Property located at 36500 De Portola Road, Temecula, CA 92592.

As a supporter of this company's mission to treat, aid and support those who are battling addiction, I strongly commend their efforts to battle this epidemic. I have personally been impacted by addiction through my own personal experience and know that those who seek help have every right to admit into facilities such as Southern California Addiction Center regardless of the location. Above and beyond a typical location, this specific property requesting the conditional use permit is secluded and secure. I believe that the stigma associated with the disease of alcoholism and addiction is completely unfounded, and more importantly I believe that those suffering from this terrible affliction are entitled to receive caring and compassionate care whenever and wherever available. Southern California Addiction Center has embarked on a life or death errand to help suffering individuals get the help they so desperately need, and I firmly believe any hindrance in this effort poses an imminent danger to the very lives they are trying to save.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

As a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who has worked in the field of substance use disorders treatment for over 35 years, I am pleased to offer Southern California Addiction Center my unqualified support. RE: Support of Conditional Use Permit No. 3757

I support the County of Riverside granting a Conditional Use Permit 3757 for the Property located at 36500 De Portola Road, Temecula, CA 92592.

As a supporter of this company's mission to treat, aid and support those who are battling addiction and commend their efforts. I have friends and members of my family who have suffered from addictions to alcohol, and a rehabilitation center can make all the difference. I think that those who seek help have every right to admit into facility's such as Southern California Addiction Center regardless of the location. Above and beyond a typical location, this specific property requesting the conditional use permit is secluded and secure. The rolling Temecula hills provide a tranquil environment for people to focus on their recovery.

As a supporter of Drug and Alcohol Recovery, I encourage Riverside County to grant Southern California Addiction Center the Conditional Use Permit as applied for. They have sought out this process and are in compliance with all that the County has asked of them. I am supportive of Southern California Addiction Centers application for Conditional Use Permit Application 3757 in Riverside County.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Supervisors Washington, Jeffries, Tavaglione, Perez and Ashley,

I support the County of Riverside granting a Conditional Use Permit 3757 for the Property located at 36500 De Portola Road, Temecula, CA 92592. I am a supporter of this company's mission to treat, aid and support those who are battling addiction and commend their efforts. Above and beyond a typical location, this specific property requesting the conditional use permit is secluded and secure. They have recently been accredited by The Joint Commission which is not an easy feat. Despite all the controversy around this vote, SCAC has remained and will remain devoted and focused clearly on their goal to help people with addiction find their way back to a normal life and to the families and friends who love them. No one can deny that there are bad businesses out there; they exist in every field and industry. But SCAC is one who plans to remain pure to their commitment and who have made every effort to prove it.

As a supporter of quality Drug and Alcohol Recovery, I encourage Riverside County to grant Southern California Addiction Center the Conditional Use Permit as applied for. They have sought out this process and are in compliance with all that was required of them. Let's help them fight this deadly disease.

Sincerely,

I support the County of Riverside granting a Conditional Use Permit 3757 for the Property located at 36500 De Portola Road, Temecula, CA 92592.

As an educator and aspiring principal, I have seen the grips of addiction hold tight to the younger generation and is simply breaks by heart. As the addiction epidemic continues to grow, so will the demand for more available treatment beds. Please consider the future generations to come; they will need your support as much as those seeking treatment today do.

Please consider the many, many lives that this permit could potentially impact for the better. Please give the countless addicts who have yet to seek treatment a better chance at recovery.

Thank you for your time.

Conditional Use Permit
No. 3757

I support the County of Riverside granting a Conditional Use Permit 3757 for the Property located at 36500 De Portola Road, Temecula, CA 92592.

Addiction has impacted a lot of people in my life, both family and friends. I would be devastated to know that one could not potentially seek treatment due to a lack of bed availability. Please grant Southern California Addiction Center the ability to expand their property to help more people. You never know who the next person seeking treatment may be...it could be my loved one or yours.

Please consider the many, many lives that this permit could potentially impact for the better. Please give the countless addicts who have yet to seek treatment a better chance at recovery.

Thank you for your time.

O.C. Register Article: Death in Murrieta Rehab Generates $7 Million

Dollar Award

By Tony Saavedra | tsaavedra@scng.com and Teri Sforza | tsforza@scng.com | Orange County Register

PUBLISHED: February 8, 2018 at 6:07 pm | UPDATED: February 9, 2018 at 11:13 am

Shaun Reyna was delusional, despondent and desperate to get clean when he slit his neck and arms with a razor at a state-licensed detox center in Riverside County in 2013.

For some two hours, Reyna bled out in his room at A Better Tomorrow's treatment center in Murrieta. He was alone during this time, and unattended, despite staff's earlier observation that he was so agitated he should go to a hospital, and despite state rules requiring that detox clients be observed every 30 minutes, according to a wrongful death suit. If A Better Tomorrow had done either of those things, said Reyna's family, he might still be alive.

American Addiction Centers – which acquired A Better Tomorrow – argued that it did nothing wrong, and that Reyna's unfortunate decision to end his life was his own and it was not at fault.

Last week, a Riverside County Superior Court jury disagreed, awarding Reyna's family $7 million in damages.

American Addiction Centers is one of the largest addiction treatment firms in the United States, and has come under national scrutiny for its business practices. Attorneys did not respond to a request for comment, and the company's chief executive, Michael Cartwright, did not return telephone messages.

The Reyna tragedy sprang from several problems plaguing the "Wild West" of addiction treatment in California, attorneys said: Potentially life-threatening withdrawal is allowed in non-medical facilities here, even while it is forbidden in other states. In an effort to make money from insurance payments, centers routinely make big promises about levels of care that they are simply not equipped to provide – to get "heads in beds," as it is known in the industry – and state inspectors can't keep up with it all.

RELATED: Read "Rehab Riviera," our investigation into Southern California rehabs

"It's an industry that's notoriously unregulated and unchecked," said Jeremiah Lowe, one of the Reyna family's attorneys. "This is what happens you have a lot of greed and a lot of profits coming into this marketplace. You're dealing with people who are vulnerable, sick, who have hit rock bottom and need help, and (rehab centers) are making a lot of money off of that.

"We're hoping this ($7 million award) shines a bright light on the whole industry."

Legally blind, with a history of physical and mental illnesses complicated by his use of alcohol and benzodiazepines, Reyna, from Atwater, had stopped the pills and drinking cold turkey. He was, he told a phone rep from A Better Tomorrow, “barely hanging on by the edge of my nails.”

In a tape of the 2013 conversation, Reyna tells the sales rep: “I’m depressed. I’m paranoid. I don’t know. I just feel like people are watching me, and ...I feel like I can’t hold on any longer.”

Reps from the company assured him they had everything he needed to be safe and start recovering. They also told him he could come in for help as soon as the financial details were worked out, and they urged him to have his wife call back with the necessary information.

But when Reyna arrived for treatment, he was not given a blood test to identify whatever drugs were in his system. And as the tremors began and he shook and hallucinated — symptoms that aren’t unusual for people weaning their bodies off the substances Reyna said he took — some staff at A Better Tomorrow advised taking Reyna to a hospital. But, according to court papers, that advice was voted down by supervisors.

In his room at the center, fewer than 20 hours after he arrived, Reyna pulled the razor from his luggage, his attorney said.

The Reyna lawsuit says at least five addicts with serious medical or psychiatric issues were admitted to A Better Tomorrow facilities and died shortly afterward. It didn’t matter how sick the people were or how ill-equipped the center was to care for them — if they could pay, the non-medical facility took them in anyway, said Patrick Stormes-Swan, another attorney for the Reyna family.

In another case stemming from a death at A Better Tomorrow, American Addiction Centers became the first corporation charged with murder in California.

Gary Benefield was found dead in his room shortly after his arrival in 2010. Benefield used an oxygen tank and had a history of health problems. A grand jury held that the treatment center was not prepared to care for him and hastened his death by failing to refill his oxygen tank.

In 2016, the company reached a settlement with the California Attorney General, dismissing criminal charges in exchange for three years of compliance, internal audit and quality review programs, monitored by an independent party. AAC also had to pay the state $549,986 for costs related to the legal proceedings and $200,000 as a civil penalty.

In the Reyna case, the jury found the treatment center liable for negligence in his death, and that all the fault was the responsibility of the facility.

The Southern California News Group spent a year probing the addiction treatment industry in California and found that as opioid addiction has soared, unscrupulous rehab operators have rushed in to take advantage of mandatory mental health treatment coverage required by the Affordable Care Act. For rehab centers, broke and homeless heroin addicts can be worth hundreds of thousands of dollars each in the form of insurance payments. Many addicts are bought, sold and exploited in an underworld rife with kickbacks, drug use and fraud that can end in death.

“There needs to be legislation and regulation over these type of non-medical facilities,” said Stormes-Swan. “They’re preying on vulnerable people and the law just hasn’t caught up.”

* The suspect that broke in was identified by the police from the rehab on our street IN WINE COUNTRY

March 24, 2016 · Temecula · Temecula Talk Post Facebook (Anonymous):

Neighborhood Safety Warning

The line was crossed Monday night when a long time resident of a rehab facility in our neighborhood broke into our neighbor's guesthouse.

Monday night, our neighbor's guest house was broken into and burglarized by a resident of a drug and alcohol rehabilitation house in Temecula wine country near Anza road. The burglary was discovered Tuesday morning when our neighbor noticed a broken window, and blood all over the window frame, glass and ground. Items were also missing from the house. The property owner called the neighbors to alert them, and when she spoke to the rehab house owner (at 2 in the afternoon), the rehab owner stated she knew about it and it was one of her guys who "fell off the wagon and wandered away last night." The rehab house owner knew about it, but never bothered to call or come by to talk or check on the family. Furthermore, she has yet to take responsibility or offer to pay for the cleanup and damage. The rehab facility did not report him to the police. They should have reported the incident to authorities Monday night when the resident returned to the rehab house bloody and carrying stolen goods because the facility acts as the liaison between the client and the courts. The suspect's rehabilitation was court ordered and he was on probation. Not only did the rehab facility avoid calling authorities, but they tried to call his relatives to have him picked up instead. The police were finally called by the victim Tuesday afternoon and the suspect has been arrested. Later it was learned that he was found with the stolen items, had cuts on his hand and arms from the window, and admitted to the break in. I am sharing this information to shed light on an overlooked danger in our quiet, "safe", and family oriented neighborhood. These rehab facilities are trying to co-exist in residential neighborhoods, often bringing residents into the rehab who have been convicted of crimes and are on probation. I worry about the lack of security, safety, and oversight on the part of these facilities as they move into residential neighborhoods. How could it be that no one from the rehab center did anything when one of their (on probation) intoxicated residents wandered away in the middle of the night and returned all cut up with a bag of stolen property? Please help us contact the county to work on getting laws enforced that would protect our families, property, and neighborhoods from these negligent businesses.

O.C. Register Article: Senate calls hearing on addiction treatment...

By Teri Sforza | tsforza@scng.com | Orange County Register

PUBLISHED: January 26, 2018 at 2:30 pm | UPDATED: January 26, 2018 at 4:03 pm

SACRAMENTO – After reports of death, sexual assault, drug use and patient brokering inside California's loosely regulated addiction treatment facilities, legislators have called a hearing before the Senate Health Committee on Wednesday, Jan. 31, to explore the Golden State's approach to the industry.

The agenda has not been finalized, but here are some of the people slated to testify:

Researchers from UCLA's Integrated Substance Abuse Programs

Former clients of treatment centers

Treatment center managers

A professional organization representing rehab workers

State agencies charged with regulation and oversight, including representatives from the California Departments of Insurance, Health Care Services and Social Services

A representative from the Attorney General's Office

Input will also be sought from health insurers and from local representatives in Orange County and Malibu, the two areas with the densest concentrations of rehabs in the state.

The hearing is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 31, in John Burton Hearing Room 4203. It will be streamed live online, for those who can't be present.

The Southern California News Group spent a year probing the addiction industry and found it peppered with financial abuses that bleed untold millions from public and private pockets.

Reporters discovered that many rehabs upend residential neighborhoods and fail to set addicts on a path to sobriety. They also found the existence of a revolving door between detox centers, treatment facilities, sober living homes and, often, the streets, that generates huge money for operators who know how to game the system.

Stoned and crying in April, 2017, Timmy Solomon hears a voice. "What's wrong, why are you so sad," the voice slurs from a sleeping on the concrete near a gas station. The voice belongs to Timothy, a homeless alcoholic. Timmy tells him he misses his 1-year-old daughter, who he hasn't seen in months. He gets no sympathy from Timothy who says he's been estranged from his entire family for years. It puts Solomon's life in perspective. "I'm sorry," he says. (Mindy Schauer, Staff File)

Costa Mesa home owner Phil Mutt chats outside his holiday-decorated home that he has lived in for 34 years. His street used to be teeming with children playing outside. Now, he says, crime is up. He attributes this to homeless youth who have come to his city for rehab. "I don't have that safe feeling anymore," he said. (Photo by Mindy Schauer, Orange County Register/SCNG)

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING BEFORE THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF RIVERSIDE COUNTY ON A CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT, A CHANGE OF ZONE, AND ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE, IN THE RANCHO CALIFORNIA - SOUTH-WEST AREA PLAN, THIRD SUPERVISORIAL DISTRICT AND INTENT TO FIND NO NEW ENVIRONMENTAL DOCUMENTATION IS REQUIRED

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing at which all interested persons will be heard, will be held before the Board of Supervisors of Riverside County, California, on the 1st Floor Board Chambers, County Administrative Center, 4080 Lemon Street, Riverside, on Tuesday, March 27, 2018 at 10:30 A.M. or as soon as possible thereafter, to consider the application submitted by Linda R. Davis for an amendment to the General Plan, Ordinance No. 7921 and Ordinance No. 7921 (a) for residential drug and alcohol treatment facility within an existing 7,384 square foot home on a 10.41 acre lot, which will operate in three shifts with 23 full time staff; and, Change of Zone No. 7921 and associated Ordinance No. 348,4882, which is required to make the subject property's zoning consistent with the County's General Plan as amended by General Plan Amendment No. 1077 and will change the zoning from Rural-Residential to Wine Country-Equestrian, or such other zones as the Board may find appropriate ("the project"). The project is located north of De Portola Road, and both south and west of Paseo Del Traza, Third Supervisorial District.

The Planning Commission recommended that the Board of Supervisors find Conditional Use Permit No. 3757 exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), pursuant to State CEQA Guidelines Section 15301. The Board of Supervisors has adopted Ordinance No. 348,4882, which requires that the project be subject to the CEQA Guidelines. The project is required to comply with Ordinance No. 7921 and associated Ordinance No. 348,4882 because all potentially significant effects on the environment have been adequately analyzed in the previously certified Environmental Impact Report No. 524 pursuant to applicable legal standards and have been avoided or mitigated pursuant to that earlier EIR, and none of the conditions described in CEQA Guidelines Section 15162 exist based on the findings and conclusions set forth herein.

The Planning Department's report package for the project may be viewed from the date of this notice until the public hearing, Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the Riverside County Planning Department at 4080 Lemon Street, 12th Floor, Riverside, California 92501.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION REGARDING THIS PROJECT, PLEASE CONTACT LARRY ROSS, PROJECT PLANNER, AT (951) 955-9294 OR EMAIL lross@rivco.org.

Any person wishing to testify in support of or in opposition to the project may do so in writing between the date of this notice and the public hearing, or may appear and be heard at the time and place noted above. All written comments received prior to the public hearing will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors and the Board of Supervisors will consider such comments, in addition to any oral testimony, before making a decision on the project.

If you challenge the above item in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence to the Planning Commission or Board of Supervisors or, prior to, the public hearing. Be advised that as a result of the public hearing and the consideration of all public comment, written and oral, the Board of Supervisors may amend the project description and the related environmental document. Accordingly, the designations, development standards, decision or improvements, or any properties or lands within the boundaries of the project, may be changed in a way other than specifically proposed.

Alternative formats available upon request to individuals with disabilities. If you require reasonable accommodation, please contact Lisa Wagner at (951) 955-1063, at least 72 hours prior to hearing.
