BACKGROUND: Community Designation funds will be given to the following organizations:

1. American Cancer Society, Inc. support will assist with programs and services in the Fifth District to help find a cure for cancer and reduce the burden of the disease within our community.

2. Banning Cultural Alliance will utilize their support for various programs and services to the Pass Area to assist in promoting the importance of art and cultural programs for all ages.

3. Habitat for Humanity San Gorgonio Pass Area will use their support for housing affordability programs and services for all, within the San Gorgonio community by providing traditional new builds and restoring older homes through their Brush with Kindness Program.

4. Riverside County Sheriff's Department funding will support the annual awards ceremony that will recognize and honor the members of the department sworn and unsworn staff, citizens of the community and volunteers for their services and actions.
