BACKGROUND:

Summary

Pursuant to the State's standard agreement (number: 18112444), POST has agreed to reimburse the Sheriff's Department $34,650 of the cost incurred for five presentations of the Law Enforcement Supervisory course conducted for California Law Enforcement personnel at BCTC in FY 2018-2019.

The total cost for the five presentations of the 80-hour mandated course is estimated to be $122,000. After accounting for the State funding from POST ($34,650) and Moreno Valley College ($52,362), the remaining class presentation cost is $34,988. Approximately $20,925 of this amount will be recovered by charging an estimated 75 students, who are not Riverside Sheriff's Department employees, a fee of $279 each to attend the class. The remaining students who are Riverside Sheriff's Department employees that attend will require NCC funding in the amount for $14,063.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

This law enforcement course covers topics vital to the sworn first-line supervisor. Course topics include Values, Principles, Ethics, Leadership Styles, Assertive Leadership, Employee Performance Appraisals, Counseling, and Discipline. The costs for the classes are partially reimbursed by POST. Local presentation of the classes at the training center saves the County student travel and possible lodging expense.
