On motion of Supervisor Tavaglione, seconded by Supervisor Washington, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, October 2, 2018 be adjourned in memory of Conrad M. Beadle, a resident of Carlsbad, California who passed away on August 21, 2018.

Born in 1931, in Evansville, Indiana, Conrad was destined to face adversity and to emerge a tenacious survivor. At the early age of fifteen, he left home to discover, travel, and find his way in the world. Early independence led him to enlist in the armed forces, and he later joined the United States Marine Corps, proudly serving for twenty-one years. As he grew up with the military, he grew to embody their values of discipline, determination, and loyalty.

During his career as a Marine, Conrad rose up through the ranks to the position of First Lieutenant. He was a devout Marine, Mustang, one of the "chosen few," a patriot, and hero to many in the family. He served in not one, but two wars, Korea and Vietnam, and earned a Bronze Star for his service in Korea. Conrad was a warrior, though he disliked war, and he served his country courageously when called.

Not surprisingly, Conrad's experiences with the military could not help but bleed over into his family life. He was a hard worker and was very disciplined, and expected that of his children. He had strict rules and fiercely pushed the importance of education because he knew that education was power.

Conrad truly had a zest for life and many talents. At a very young age, he displayed natural vocal talent and was even featured singing on the radio. He enjoyed slow-pitch softball, the horse races, dancing, singing, music, physical fitness, and reading. His greatest life-long passion was bowling, which he shared with his wife, Nancy Beadle.

Conrad was a loving husband of sixty-one years to his wife Nancy and a dedicated father to four children. He was blessed with nine grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and one kitty, his beloved Christopher.

Conrad was interred at Fort Rosecrans National Cemetery in San Diego, California with full military honors. His memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the Country and the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Conrad Beadle.
