SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

BACKGROUND:

1. The donation to the Eastvale Chamber of Commerce will be used to offer resources that promote growth and prosperity of the City, its businesses and surrounding communities, through commercial, economic and cultural development.
2. The donation to the Corona Art Association will be used to support their annual "Lemon Festival" which is to educate the community about the Corona Art Association and its programs, and to raise funds and increase membership so they can offer more art classes to children, adults and special needs children.
3. The donation to Voices for Children will be used to fund the recruitment, training and management of CASA volunteers who provide advocacy to children living in the Second Supervisorial District.
4. The donation to the William H. Douglass Foundation will help underrepresented students navigate through the diverse and complicated challenges of achieving their post-secondary degree or credential.
