Born on March 25, 1926 to Thomas Bennett and Veronica Brant, Gertrude was fondly known as "Ben" by her friends and family. She earned her Registered Nursing Degree at St. Francis School of Nursing in La Crosse, Wisconsin in 1947. She married Richard Marlow Adams in 1948.

Ben and Rich moved to the foothills near Kings Canyon National Park and loved their country house and acreage. When Ben was widowed in 1992, she returned to Riverside to be near her daughters.
