Veterans Business Training Center

We are in the first few weeks of moving in. We don't know much about Murrieta. The first thing I did notice was the air quality (as compared to Palm Desert Ca.). I have cops and I was very happy to be able to take a "fresh" breath of air! 😊

Safe trails.

Streetlights

YMCA

It would be great to see more indoor facilities for our kids need changes to our community center to actually give the services they are supposed to for the community

Animal Shelter

Local Shopping Mall

Green belt parkway

more parks

Police Station

More cops on the streets

Making the driveway of post office not ruin peoples cars

Plans for a "downtown wildomar" with dining, retail and shops

Youth centers and senior centers

City swimming pool/water park

Police

Areas for people to be able to relax i.e. duck pond etc.

Water parks

ok

Police, code enforcement and cleanup for all the garbage everywhere

More lighted cross walks on Grand, speed bumps on Grand (center turning lane), shaded bus stops with trash cans. Senior Centers on the west side of Elsinore

There needs to be more for teens to do

More job creation bc the freeway is overcrowded and with more homes being built it will only get worse for commuters

Library, Community activity center

Veteran Facilities

Open space hiking

Street Lighting, speed bumps

Our library is inadequate to serve the educational and small business needs of the community. For example, we have no meeting/study rooms and no juvenile non-fiction section. Increasingly, libraries are called upon to serve the needs of the homeless and seniors as well as youth. It would be good to combine facilities and funding to serve these various needs.

Facility for Scouts - Boy and Girl

Wildomar Library

SAFE areas to bike (protected from traffic)

A bigger public library in Wildomar.
