

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

On motion of Supervisor Washington, seconded by Supervisor Spiegel, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 7, 2020 be adjourned in memory of Phil Brigandi, who passed away on December 12, 2019.

Phil was a lifelong resident of California, born on June 29, 1959 in the City of Orange, to Pamela and Michael Brigandi.

He joined the Orange Community Historical Society Board just after high school and was a member of the Board of Directors by the age of 18. When he moved to Hemet, he became the historian for the Ramona Pageant Association. He was also the director of the San Jacinto Museum.

Phil moved back to Orange County in 2003, but he continued to act as an important resource to Riverside County historians.

Phil's memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Phil Brigandi.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true, and correct copy of an order made and entered on January 7, 2020 of Supervisors Minutes.

On motion of Supervisor Washington, seconded by Supervisor Spiegel, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 7, 2020 be adjourned in memory of William "Bill" Woodford, who passed away on November 22, 2019, at the age of 89.

Bill was born on March 18, 1930, to James Beach Woodford and Margaret Jane Woodford in Claremont, California. In the 1950's they moved to Riverside, California. Bill graduated from Webb High School in Claremont in 1948; Attended Occidental College for under-graduate from 1949-1952 and University of Southern California School of law from 1953-1955. After graduating from law school Bill worked for the Riverside County District Attorney's office. Immediately following his employment with the District Attorney's office, Bill became a partner at the law firm of Pierce and Woodford in Riverside. Bill practiced law in Riverside until the mid 1970's.

During retirement Bill chose to pursue a new endeavor, co-managing the ongoing citrus business and the National Orange Company Packing House. He also continued his education in the arts, culinary and agricultural business. Bill also found great happiness in pursuing his artistic and creative interests. He soon became very proficient in wood carving, ceramics, woodworking, painting and gourmet cooking.

Bill loved to travel, and he and his wife Liz spent a large part of their free time going on trips all over the country as well as Great Britain, Europe and Canada.

Bill's memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of William "Bill" Woodford.

On motion of Supervisor Washington, seconded by Supervisor Spiegel, and duly carried by unanimous vote, IT WAS ORDERED that the meeting of Tuesday, January 7, 2020 be adjourned in memory of Phillip Wilkinson Newhouse, who passed away on October 11, 2019.

Phillip was born on March 15, 1922, in Corona, California. He graduated from Corona High School in 1940, and Chaffee College in 1942. Following college Phillip enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Corps and became a pilot. In December of 1944 his B-25 twin engine plane was shot down over Northern Italy. He bailed out and despite landing in enemy territory, with the help of allied partisans, he was not captured. He remained behind enemy lines fighting, until the end of the war 5 and a half months later. He received The Purple Heart.

When the war was over Phillip returned to Bozeman, Montana and married Irene Gillette in July 1945. He met Irene on a blind date in Bozeman while in training. They returned to Corona and made their home there, raising their family for nearly 60 years.

Phillip worked for his father and uncle in their Newhouse and White Citrus fumigation business in Corona for several years, before going to work for 3M Company in El Cerrito, California. He retired from 3M in 1987 after 36 years. Phillip was a Master Mason member of the Temescal Palms Masonic Lodge in Corona for 62 years. He was a founding board member of Rainbow for Girls Assembly in Corona. He also volunteered at Corona Public Library Heritage Room for many years.

Phillip's keen memory, sense of humor and wit, coupled with an unending knowledge of Riverside and Corona's history, provided many entertaining hours of amusing and interesting story telling. His love and wealth of information about citrus, cactus, succulents, pecans and apricots will be fondly remembered.

Phillip's memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

The Board of Supervisors commemorates his service to the County of Riverside.

IT WAS FURTHER ORDERED that the Board of Supervisors expresses its heartfelt condolences to the family of Phillip Wilkinson Newhouse.
