SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

BACKGROUND:

The COVID pandemic has triggered unprecedented levels of unemployment and economic disruption which has resulted in devastating consequences for residents living in poverty or teetering on the brink. Thousands of Riverside County residents have sought public and community services to meet their basic needs and for assistance in navigating various community systems. This need for assistance has taxed not only our public systems of care but also the community network of care provided by the non-profit sector. Our local non-profits are now facing significant financial issues stemming from dramatic increases in service provision, loss of revenue and loss of volunteers. As we work to provide interventions to support our local business community, we must also work to support the non-profit sector which has continued to provide invaluable community services during the pandemic.

Per the State of Nonprofits in the Inland Empire issued in April 2020, there are currently 7,511 non-profits registered in Riverside County and 5,331 non-profits who recently filed tax returns. These non-profits generate a combined revenue of $3.7 billion and represent 5% of the county's Gross Domestic Product (GDP). In addition to revenue, non-profits like businesses also generate jobs. Per the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), there were 69,419 non-profit employees in the Inland Empire. Non-profits play a critical role not only in community services but also in our local economy as businesses.

To support the Riverside County non-profit sector we recommend establishing a Non-Profit Assistance Fund to provide small scale grants ranging from $2,500 - $10,000 to local non-profits to assist with general operating expenses. The goal of these grants is to provide unrestricted financial assistance to support the daily operations of these organizations. We also recommend a portion of the funding (5%) be earmarked for technical assistance to support non-profits who require additional assistance. We estimate that we can serve more than 400 non-profits with these grants. Grant applications will be funded based on location, size of the agency, financial need and the direct impact of COVID on the agency's operations. The funding parameters will also strive to advance equity and meet the needs of underserved communities.

The Inland Empire Community Foundation (IECF) currently administers a regional fund to support non-profits providing direct services related to COVID. This fund is currently operated under the umbrella of the IE Funders Alliance in an effort to leverage a variety of foundational funding and to ensure funds are equally distributed. We recommend that the Inland Empire Community Foundation administer the Riverside County Non-Profit Assistance Fund to build on existing efforts and resources. Streamlined grant applications will be available online and will be widely marketed to the non-profit community. Additional efforts will be made to outreach to very small non-profits operating community pantries and meal distribution services. Staff proposes implementing the program July 1st and allowing for a 30 day application period. Based on this timeline, funds will be disbursed in mid-late August to allow time for application review. The proposed grant program and timeline will allow for these critical funds to be distributed within 90 days of Board approval.

GREATER RIVERSIDE CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE

The Chamber...building a stronger local economy

June 8, 2020

The Honorable V. Manuel Perez
Chairman, Riverside County Board of Supervisors

RE: Riverside County Non-Profit Assistance Fund – SUPPORT

Dear Chairman Perez,

On behalf of the Greater Riverside Chambers of Commerce, representing over 1,370 local employers and 110,000 jobs in the Inland Southern California region, I am writing in support of the proposal to establish the Riverside County Non-Profit Assistance Fund. We appreciate your leadership and dedication to provide $5 million in federal CARES Act dollars to this program to help hundreds of local non-profit organizations.

COVID-19 has presented financial challenges for business organizations across a broad spectrum. However, non-profit organizations have been disproportionately impacted, as they have generally been left out of most federal relief packages. As you know, thousands of local non-profit organizations provide essential services such as youth programs, food security, business services, community advancement, healthcare, as well as assistance to some of the region's most vulnerable populations.

The investment in this new fund will go a long way in ensuring the stability of these critical non-profits, keeping employees on payroll and allowing these organizations to continue their work to improve quality of life for the region's residents.

Again, we applaud your commitment to helping local non-profit organizations in their recovery efforts and look forward to continuing the partnership to build a stronger local economy.

Respectfully,

Cindy Roth

Subject: Cares Act Funds for Non-Profit Businesses

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I tried to call into today's meeting in support of Supervisor Spiegel's recommendation for 5 Million in Cares Act Funds for non-profit businesses.

Apparently there was a significant lag in the "live stream" so the item passed prior to my call.

I regret that I was not able to speak to you then, but am now writing to simply say "Thank You."

For what it is worth, I am including the bullet points that I would have covered on the phone below.

- My name is Damien O'Farrell. I serve as the CEO of Parkview Legacy Foundation and am a resident of District 2.
- I'm calling in support of Supervisor Spiegel's Recommendation and with appreciation for it.
- Nonprofit businesses uniquely exist entirely to serve the community rather than financial stakeholders.
- As the recent UCR Center for Innovation study shows:
 - They employ a significant amount of our residents,
 - Bring significant investments into our region,
 - Provide incredible returns on the investments made into their work,
 - And do important work efficiently and effectively to address issues that would likely otherwise fall on the shoulders of government.
- Their work is essential and while many businesses had to unfortunately shut down during this crisis, many non-profit businesses had to pivot their services and step up to do even more than before, but with threatened funding sources.
- Now that we are moving into recovery, many non-profit businesses are facing very uncertain futures and desperately need this support to continue their service to all of us.
- A notable difference between non-profit/community benefit businesses and for-profit businesses is that the business model for most doesn't include or allow for selling things to customers for revenue.
- So while for profit businesses who open will hopefully start seeing revenues come in the door, non-profit businesses depend on contracts that have been threatened and support from donors who have been financially hurt in this crisis.
- These funds are so terribly needed at this time and appreciated.
- Thank you also for suggesting that they be managed and distributed by the community who understand the needs best.
- Thank you for your leadership.

Sincerely,

Damien O'Farrell,
President and CEO
