Harry was born on December 25, 1930, in St. Louis, Missouri. Harry spent 6 years proudly serving in the U.S. Army, and later went on to become a machinist. Harry owned and operated his own die-cutting business in Corona, for eighteen years.

Harry's true calling came when he gave his life to Christ and began a long wonderful career in ministry. He held pastoral positions at churches in Ontario, Santa Ana and Bellflower, before settling in at First Baptist Church in Corona, where he served as Interim Pastor and Care Pastor for many years. Harry also served as Chaplain for the Corona Police Department and Corona Regional Hospital, where he was a cherished member of their staff and remembered for his sense of humor, as well as the beautiful way he loved people. Harry presided over countless weddings, funerals and baby dedications. He was a friend to everyone and touched so many lives.

When Harry wasn't working you could find him on the golf course playing his favorite game. It was there, that he enjoyed his time with friends, laughing, relaxing and sometimes counseling and offering advice. After leaving his position at First Baptist, his ministry didn't end. Harry continued to share God's love with everyone he met, from the staff at Cracker Barrel to the doctors and nurses at the hospital. His life was truly dedicated to loving others the way Christ loves us. His family was his most precious and priceless gift.
