Chuck was born February 2, 1928, in Haskell Springs, Arizona. He grew up in an Arizona ranching family, with eight siblings. Chuck was an accomplished horseman at an early age. Unfortunately, he contracted polio at age 17, and lost most of his senior year to quarantine, and painful treatments. He persevered and was able to graduate from High School in San Diego.

Chuck married his high school sweetheart and graduated from Northern Arizona University. While in college, the couple had two daughters, Marcia and Christine. After graduation, he and his wife divorced. Ultimately, Chuck met the love of his life Louise, and they married two years later.

Chuck and Louise moved to Glendale in 1966 where he worked for over 30 years in the title insurance business. He rose to the position of Vice President in Los Angeles before retiring in 1980.

Chuck never forgot the precious memories of riding through the beautiful Verde Valley of Arizona and would often tell his grandchildren of his many adventures in the desert. He was insatiably curious about all topics and his grandchildren often commented that "Grandpap knows everything!" He was particularly interested in world history and scientific discoveries, as well as having an encyclopedic knowledge of human evolution. He enjoyed learning new technology and was never seen without his iPhone.

Chuck's memory and passionate spirit will live forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved him, he will be remembered as a gentleman and scholar who lived his life devoted to his family, especially his wife, Louise, who passed only two months before him. Their sixty-year love affair was one for the ages. Chuck will be greatly missed but never forgotten.
