BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

Diane Strand founded JDS Creative Academy, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) that offers education, training and apprenticeship programs in all disciplines of visual, performing, and digital arts. Mrs. Strand is also deeply involved with the community and the region's economic development. She serves on the Women in Business Committee for the Temecula Chamber of Commerce. She mentors, teaches and trains youth and young adults both mainstream and those with developmental disabilities. She also sits on the Economic Development Coalition of Southwest California and has served on the Workforce Development Board since 2015. Mrs. Strand is interested in addressing the issues that occur when businesses need to build their workforce. She wants to ensure that our current and future workforce has the proper training and education needed to support the technology advances in today's world.
