BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

Felicitas Connolly has represented clients and caregivers on the In-Home Supportive Services Advisory Committee for over 15 years. As a resident of Homeland, she is familiar with the communities she represents and understands the needs of elderly/disabled constituents, having firsthand knowledge as a caregiver. She attends IHSS AC meetings regularly and has contributed to IHSS efforts by serving as a voice for clients and caregivers, speaking at events and assisting with the training and recruitment of caregivers in underserved areas of the county. She understands the needs of families caring for elderly and disabled residents and willingly shares her perspectives.
