BACKGROUND:

Summary

California AB 1869 repealed the authority of counties to charge defendants fees imposed in the criminal legal system including, administering probation and mandatory supervision, processing arrests and citations, and administering home detention programs, continuous electronic monitoring programs, work furlough programs, and work release programs. The provisions of the bill took effect beginning July 1, 2021. In response the Board of Supervisors, on October 26, 2021, approved agenda item 3.13, the introduction of Ordinance No. 966, an ordinance repealing Ordinance Nos. 914 (as amended through 914.1), 591 (as amended through 591.2), and 720 (as amended through 720.1). This ordinance will eliminate fees for the cost of administering the criminal justice system, including administering probation and mandatory supervision, administering home detention programs, and continuous electronic monitoring programs.

Today's action on this agenda adopting Ordinance No. 966 will finalize the Board's approval of this ordinance. Once the ordinance is adopted, it becomes effective thirty days later.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

Eliminating the collection of outstanding fees and providing debt forgiveness would be critical to the financial health of the adults and their families in this County. Furthermore, data suggests the inability to meet basic needs has been found to contribute to higher rates of recidivism and is a barrier to family reunification.

Additional Fiscal Information

The Superior Court of California Enhanced Collections Division (ECD) currently collects all fees on behalf of the Probation Department. Based on preliminary estimates received from the ECD, Riverside County has approximately $22,224,286 in outstanding adult fees. The department previously received revenue from collected efforts, however, this revenue will no longer be available to the department.
