STATE OF CALIFORNIA

BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

After serving in the United States Army, Mrs. Martland graduated from Long Beach State University with a bachelor's degree in history and journalism. She has served on the Temecula Valley Historical Society for over ten years; serving three years as the society's president and the last five as scholarship chairman. Mrs. Martland is currently board president of the Temecula Valley Museum Board of Directors and a member of the Murrieta Educational Foundation for the Arts Board of Directors. She is also a docent at the Temecula Valley Museum and at the Lincoln Memorial Shrine in Redlands. Mrs. Martland feels as though serving on the Historical Commission would allow her to continue to participate in protecting, preserving and educating the public about the history of Riverside County.
