BACKGROUND:

Riverside County Workforce Development Board (WDB) is a private sector led policy and oversight body that supports economic expansion and the development of the regional workforce. The WDB is governed by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (WIOA) which mandates that 50% of the WDB's members must come from the business community. In addition, WDBs are required to have representation from universities or community colleges, economic development, and workforce representatives including labor organizations. This ensures that federal funds for workforce development activities are expended on training and career coaching that meets the needs of the business community. Pursuant to WIOA, the Board of Supervisors, led by the Board Chairman who serves as the Chief Local Elected Official is responsible for appointing the WDB members for two-year terms.

Carolyn Reyna, Deputy Division Chief for the State of California's Employment Development Department (EDD), Workforce Services Branch, brings over 15 years of public workforce experience. Under her leadership, EDD staff proactively partner with County staff to provide services at the County's Workforce Development Centers, also known as America's Job Centers of California.

Ms. Reyna has been a part of the WDB's Southwest and West Regional Committees since 2015. She has also served on the WDB as a proxy member. She is interested in serving on the board to engage in collaborative effort to support a strong and sustainable economy with the best possible opportunities for both employers and job seekers.

Carolyn Reyna has expressed interest in serving on the WDB as a Public Sector Wagner-Peyser representative for All Districts. If appointed, she will serve a two-year term commencing April 5, 2022, and expiring April 5, 2024.
