BACKGROUND:

Summary

The Sheriff's Department is requesting to purchase The WRAP safety restraint system, WRAP carts, transport harness, and protective helmets from Safe Restraints, Inc. The WRAP safety restraint is a unique device that can be utilized to safely restrain inmates and suspects quickly and safely. This specific device is designed to restrain a subject comfortably in an upright and seated position to maximize the subject's respiratory recovery and receive immediate medical care as needed. The WRAP is designed to protect subjects as well as personnel by reducing the possibility of injury.

The WRAP system has unique safety features, such as a locking shoulder harness to position a person in an upright position. The position is one of the safest positions for oxygen recovery. It also consists of a leg restraint which eliminates the ability to kick and holds legs in an extended position. The ankle strap comes with a carry handle. It distributes pressure to reduce blood flow restriction and a tactical bag with a hands-free shoulder strap and bright yellow marking for ease-of-use in low light.

Impact on Citizens and Businesses

The WRAP system will assist the Sheriff's Department with maintaining their obligation to ensure the safety of subjects as well as personnel.

Contract History and Price Reasonableness

The price offered to Sheriff's Department reflects a discounted price offered to law enforcement agencies. In addition, the vendor provides value-added services at no additional cost. The benefits include instructor-led training and a warranty for conditional repair support for seven years.

The Ben Clark Training Center (BCTC) personnel will manage all training for additional operational cost savings after this period. The WRAP safety restraints are new to the Riverside Sheriff's Department. The initial purchase for supplies is $75K for FY 21/22. The
