On April 28, 2016, Judge Virginia Phillips of the United States District Court, Central District of California, Eastern Division, signed the order approving the class action settlement jointly filed by the County of Riverside and the Prison Law Office on behalf of Quinton Gray, et al. As part of that settlement, the Court appointed joint neutral experts to monitor compliance with a mutually agreed upon remedial plan, with the costs to be paid by the County.

On May 24, 2016, the Riverside County Board of Supervisors approved payment of up to $150,000 annually to pay the fees and expenses of the court ordered monitoring by the experts. Significant progress has been made since then, and the parties are still in the process of implementing the remedial plan. It is necessary to authorize additional payment for the experts engaged in the monitoring aspect of the agreement for two additional years, with the option to extend for an additional year if required. The payments would be for a maximum of $150,000 per year.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

Citizens in Riverside County can be confident that inmates in all County detention facilities under the direction of the Sheriff receive adequate health and behavioral health services.
