Comments: As a senior citizen, I have been duped by Riverside County. I had Solar Panels placed on my home. The Contractor went to the City of Lake Elsinore and when it came time for inspection, they discovered they are supposed to pull the permit in the County of Riverside. The County of Riverside has denied the permit due to redwood above ground pool deck that was locked not accesible. They stated the deck which has no foundation was unpermitted and refused to issue a solar panel permit. The redwood deck was here when I bought the home in 1992 and their was no disclosure indicating it was unpermitted. I currently have been forced to make 3 payments to the solar company and have spent 2000 dollars as a result of this what I call building code extortion. This isn't a building, had no foundation and the inspector refused to come out and discuss or see it. They got it off of google map and claimed it needed a permit. My suggestion is stop these gestapo tactics. Issue expedited solar panel permits not spying on citizens with google map and forcing unnecessary expenses.
