STATE OF CALIFORNIA

BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

The Commission began as the Riverside County Historical Committee on April 11, 1966, and was made a full commission by board resolution on May 6, 1968. The Historical Commission is responsible for broad purposes relating to the study of local history and documentation as well as the preservation of historic records, sites, and structures.

Bette Martland is an army veteran and retired history teacher. She is interested in early California history and the preservation of historical sites. She gives living history presentations and has written several articles on California's California and the civil war period.
