BACKGROUND:

Community Improvement Designation funds will be given to the following organizations:

1. Oak Grove Institute Foundation - $25,000.00 - Funds will be used for the 'Create, Play and Culinary Work Program' serving children with psychological, emotional and behavioral problems and special needs.
2. Boys & Girls Club of Menifee Valley - $10,000.00 - Funds to be used for operational expenses for the 'Boys & Girls Club of Inland Valley Summer Program'; the purchase of a used van to transport kids on field trips, as well as the purchase of an AED (automated external defibrillator) for enhanced safety at the Clubhouse.
3. 5&2 Compassionate Ministry - $ 2,500.00 - Funding for 'Community Food Shelf Distributions' at Gracepoint Church, with regular food distributions, twice a month, to help low-income families.
4. Riverside County Regional Park and Open Space District - $7,200.00 - Funds will be used for the 'RivCo Park Library Pass Program', which allows library patrons to check out a day use pass, valid at any Riverside County Parks location with the focus on libraries in unincorporated areas: Valle Vista, French Valley and Anza.
