BACKGROUND:

Riverside County Workforce Development Board (WDB) is a private sector led policy and oversight body that supports the development of the regional workforce. The WDB is governed by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (WIOA) which mandates that more than 50% of the WDB's members must come from the business community. In addition, WDBs are required to have representation from universities or community colleges, economic development, and workforce representatives including labor organizations. This ensures that federal funds for workforce development activities are expended on training and career coaching that meets the needs of the business community. Pursuant to WIOA, the Board of Supervisors, led by the Board Chairman who serves as the Chief Local Elected Official (CLEO), is responsible for appointing the WDB members for two-year terms.

Mr. Ken Orr, Regional Coordinator, Southern California Laborer's Apprenticeship, has been part of his organization for over 13 years. Mr. Orr has firsthand experience in the construction industry. He has worked on large scale construction projects and holds knowledge of the educational and training requirements for apprentices. He oversees apprenticeship programs that prepare apprentices to become skilled journeymen. Mr. Orr maintains relationships with community-based organizations to create awareness of apprenticeship programs, their importance and benefits. He brings experience and perspective to address the workforce
