SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION: The Commission is tasked with reviewing and evaluating the County's mental health and substance abuse needs, services, facilities, and special problems. In addition, the Commission shall review and comment on various agreements related to the provision of services for the prevention, treatment, and recovery of mental illnesses and substance abuse, as well as to report to various state and local governing bodies regarding the provision of these services. The Commission will assist in the coordination of services between contract agencies, private providers, community and faith-based organizations, consumer support and education groups, and other health organizations in an integrated matrix.

Walter T. Haessler, M.D. has been serving on the behavioral health committee since 2012. He is a retired psychiatrist with over 30 years of experience in the field.
