BACKGROUND:

Summary

In 2018, Riverside County Department of Animal Services (RCDAS) received correspondence from Altura Credit Union that stated, “the Riverside County Department of Animal Services (RCDAS) is the named pay-on-death beneficiary of an Altura Credit Union account held by Mr. Joe Williams, Jr, who is deceased. The County was proven to be entitled to the funds without the need for probate. The County received distribution of the pay-on-death beneficiary funds in April 2024.

This donation will go into the departments’ Care Fund and will be used to help stray and abandoned pets.

Impact on Residents and Businesses

The Department of Animal Services mission is, “Working together to improve Riverside County for people and animals.” The Department is committed to improve Riverside County through education, humane sheltering, responsible pet placement and reduction of pet overpopulation. We are dedicated to meet the highest standards of performance, care and compassion for the animals and people we serve.

This resolution will have a positive impact on the residents, homeless and abandoned animals of Riverside County. The donation funding enables the Department of Animal Services to promote adoption into loving homes by directing these funds to build resources in areas of greatest need.
