BACKGROUND: Community Improvement Designation funds will be given to the following organizations:

1. NVISION Latino is dedicated to changing the narrative by highlighting the power of Latin culture and addressing the underrepresentation of Latinos in media. Their mission is to champion diverse Latin talent and provide a platform for innovative work across film, music, arts, and technology.

The NVISION will host the Latino Festival on October 10-12, 2024 at the Palm Springs Art Museum and will feature a rich program of film screenings, panel discussions, and performances. Highlights include sneak peeks, music video panels, and performances. The festival will also host industry panels and networking events, aiming to celebrate and amplify Latino talent across media. CID funds will support the Latino Film Festival and students from the Coachella Valley to attend.
