SUBMITTAL TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

The Commission began as the Riverside County Historical Committee on April 11, 1966, and was made a full commission by board resolution on May 6, 1968. The Historical Commission is responsible for broad purposes relating to the study of local history and documentation as well as the preservation of historic records, sites, and structures.

Jeffery Harmon is a certified substitute teacher and author of the book Tales of Southwest Riverside County. He has written and published many articles for the Temecula Valley Historical Society, the Murrieta Valley Historical Society, the Riverside Chronicles, and the High Country Magazine. Mr. Harmon is interested in preserving and educating the public about the rich and diverse history of Riverside County.
