BACKGROUND/APPOINTEE INFORMATION:

Jackie Steed will fill the unexpired vacancy of Malinda Margiotta. Ms. Steed is a small business owner and real estate professional and is an active member of the Temecula Valley Chamber of Commerce and Habitat for Humanity. Through her professional experience in real estate, Ms. Steed brings valuable insight into the impact of housing stability, affordability, and displacement on young children and early childhood development. In addition, as a community advocate with years of nonprofit volunteer service, she has a strong understanding of the real-world challenges families face related to housing sustainability, access to services, and community safety.
