In summary, Ordinance No. 963.1 amends Ordinance No. 963 to include the County Superintendent of Schools as a County Elective Office subject to the listed campaign contribution limits and establishes requirements for the moving of funds from the campaign of one candidate in a local, state, or federal election to the campaign of the same candidate for a County Elective Office which is described as an intra-candidate transfer. In an effort to respect the intent of the donor, the amendment prohibits the intra-candidate transfer from a campaign for one office to a campaign for a County Elective Office without the consent of the original donors. Obtaining donor consent before making intra-candidate transfers is a minimal time, place, and manner restriction that balances a candidate's right to expend contributions, which is protected as core political speech, with the equally compelling right of donors is not having their speech, in the form of their initial donation, diluted or destroyed by that transfer. The amendments provide greater transparency and allow everyone the right to participate and support the candidates of their choice. The purpose of this ordinance is to ensure that individuals

This summary is presented pursuant to California Government Code Section 25124(b): a certified copy of the full text of Ordinance No. 963.1 may be examined at the Office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside, located at 4080 Lemon Street, 1st Floor, Riverside, California.

In summary, Ordinance No. 963.1 amends Ordinance No. 963 to include the County Superintendent of Schools as a County Elective Office subject to the listed campaign contribution limits and establishes requirements for the moving of funds from the campaign of one candidate in a local, state, or federal election to the campaign of the same candidate for a County Elective Office which is described as an intra-candidate transfer.
